PREFACE.

THIS Work is referred to in the notes to the Fourth Edition of DANIELL'S CHANCERY PRACTICE as Volume III.: it is framed, however, for use either as a companion volume to the Practice, or as an independent Work. The arrangement of the Practice (references to which have been added throughout) has been followed as closely as appeared convenient.

A Table has been prefixed, showing which are the Forms referred to in the notes to the Practice: by means of which the numbers of such Forms may be added in their appropriate places.

For the convenience of the practitioner, most of the statutes and cases relating to Chancery procedure that have been enacted and reported since the completion of the Practice are either cited in the notes to the Forms, or included in the Table of Addenda.

The thanks of the Editors are due to several officers of the Court and practitioners for valuable suggestions and assistance during the progress of the Work: particularly to Mr. Braithwaite, of the Record and Writ Clerks' Office, for reading the proof sheets; and to Mr. Upjohn, of the Master of the Rolls' Chambers, for preparing most of the forms of proceedings in use in the Judges' Chambers, and perusing the manuscript and proof sheets throughout.

FORMS AND PRECEDENTS.

CHAPTER I.

GENERAL FORMS.

Section I.—Reference to the Record.—Indorsement of Name and Address on Proceedings.

1. Reference to the record (a).

Every decree, order, report, certificate, petition, or document, made, presented, or used in any cause commenced on or since the first day of Michaelmas Term 1852, must be distinguished by having plainly written or stamped on the first page thereof the year, the letter, and the number by which the cause is dis-

(a) The use of the "reference to the record" by the practitioner will be found of mutual advantage to himself and the officers of the Court: as it will afford great facility in searching for records, and answering inquiries respecting causes. Every original bill filed since the 28th of October, 1842, has been marked with the year, letter, and number. For the purpose, therefore, of facilitating searches and inquiries respecting any suit which has been instituted since that date, it is desirable that the practitioner should give the "reference" to the entry of such suit; in like manner as to a suit instituted on or since Michaelmas Term, 1852. In suits commenced by administration summons between the 28th of October, 1852, and the end of the year 1855, the "reference" is not by year, letter, and number, but to the volume and page of the book in which such summonses have been entered in the Record and Writ Clerks' office; and such "reference" can be ascertained by searching under the surname of the deceased person whose estate is to be administered, in the second alphabetical index contained in a printed list kept in the Record and Writ Clerks' office, and open to inspection. Since the year 1855, suits by administration summons have been indexed by the name of the person whose estate is to be administered; and are distinguished by the year, letter, and number: in like manner as other causes. Other summonses originating proceedings in Chambers, duplicates whereof have been filed at the Record and Writ Clerks' office, are entered in the cause books under the leading title of the "Matter"; and are distinguished by the like "reference": Braithwaite's Pr. 14, 15.

tinguished in the cause books kept by the Clerks of Records and Writs (b); as thus:

The symbols used are placed on the first page of the document, either at the top, or in the left hand margin, near the top.

Where separate solicitors or firms of solicitors have appeared separately for several defendants, they cannot unite in filing a joint answer for such defendants collectively: as the indorsement of the name, &c., of one solicitor, or firm of solicitors, only, is allowed on the answer. Where it is desired to file such joint answer, an order must first be obtained to change solicitors: so as to entitle one solicitor, or firm, to represent all the defendants included in the answer: see Braithwaite's Pr. 9. Section II.—Affidavits, Oaths and Jurats—Affirmations, Declarations and Affirmats.

1. Affidavits, and Oaths and Jurats thereto (n).

12. Formal parts of an affidavit: one deponent (o).

In Chancery.
(Title of cause or matter (p), and reference to the record (q)).
[I,

(n) As to the material contents of affidavits in particular cases, see Index, AFFIDAVIT. As to taking an affidavit off the file for scandal, or expunging scandalous matter therefrom, see Dan. Pr. 324, et seq., 827, 828; and post, Nos. 58, et seq.; and Chap. XXIX. As to impertinent or unnecessary matter, see Ord. XXXV. 60; XL. 9, 10; Dan. Pr. 326, et seq., 828. As to the costs of getting affidavits settled by counsel, see Ord. XL. 17; Dan. Pr. 834, 1323. As to printing affidavits, see ib. 835—837; and post, Chap. XXII. As to obtaining office and other copies, see Dan. Pr. 832, 833. As to affidavits of service, see post, Nos. 45—50; and as to affidavits generally, see Dan. Pr. lxxx—lxxxi, 824—837, 1958, 1959.

(o) Every affidavit should be fairly written upon foolscap paper, book-wise; but the Clerks of Records and Writs may receive and file an affidavit written otherwise, if, in their opinion, the circumstances of the case render such reception and filing desirable or necessary: Ord. 6 Mar. 1860, r. 16; Dan. Pr. 828. The affidavit may also be either printed or lithographed, on like paper; dates and sums may be written either in words or in figures; but every quotation should be placed between inverted commas: Dan. Pr. 829; Braithwaite's Oaths in Chan. 42. The Clerks of Records and Writs may refuse to file any plea, answer, or affidavit in which there is any knife-erasure: or which is blotted so as to obliterate any word: or which is improperly written: or so altered as to cause any material disfigurement; or in which there is any interlineation: unless the person before whom it is sworn authenticates such interlineation with his initials, so as to show that it was made before the plea, answer, or affidavit was sworn, and to mark the extent of such interlineation: Ord. I. 36; Dan. Pr. 637, 685, 828. For form of consent to affidavit being filed, notwithstanding this rule has not been complied with, see post, No. 42.

(p) The affidavit must be headed "In Chancery"; and be correctly intituled in the cause or matter in which it is made. The full title should be set forth: Dan. Pr. 826: Braithwaite's Pr. 339; but the Record and Writ Clerk will file an affidavit with an abridged form of title; as thus: "Between John Jones, and others, plaintiffs; Thomas Styles, and others, defendants." As to rectifying mistakes in the title, see Dan. Pr. 826; and for form of consent to the affidavit being filed notwithstanding such mistake, see post, No. 42.

(q) As to the reference to the record, see ante, No. 1.

Sworn (&c.: see post, No. 15).

(r) The full christian and surnames, or title of honour, of the deponent should be stated. A married woman should be described as such, and the christian and surnames of her husband be stated. All affidavits must be taken and expressed in the first person of the deponent: otherwise, the solicitor, party, or person, filing the affidavit will not be allowed, on taxation, the costs of preparing and filing the same: Ord. XVIII. 1, 2; Dan. Pr. 827.

(s) The true place of residence, description and addition of the deponent must be inserted: Dan. Pr. 827; as thus: of No. 80, Belgrave Square, in the county of Middlesex, esquire—Or, of No. 112, Cheapside, in the city of London (clerk to Mr. E. F., of the same place), gentleman, the solicitor in this cause [Or, matter] for the plaintiffs—Or, defendant A. B. If the deponent is a party, or quasi party, to the suit or proceeding, or is named in a decree, order, or Chief Clerk's certificate made therein, his identity should be shown in the introductory part of the affidavit; as thus: one of the above named plaintiffs—Or, defendants—Or, the petitioner named in the petition presented in this cause [Or, matter] on the——day of——, 186—Or, who, by an order in this cause [Or, matter] dated the——day of——, 186—, has liberty to attend the proceedings—Or, in the decree [Or, order—Or, Chief Clerk's certificate] in this cause [Or, matter] dated the——day of——, 186—, named. A party to the cause may, however, describe himself as "the above named plaintiff," or "the above named defendant," without specifying any residence or addition, or other description: Dan. Pr. 827; Braithwaite's Pr. 339; Braithwaite's Oaths in Chan. 40. A similar rule prevails at law: Chitty's Forms, 878, n. (e).

(t) As to the necessity of these words, see Dan. Pr. 827.

(u) Every affidavit must be divided into paragraphs, and every paragraph numbered consecutively, and, as nearly as may be, confined to a distinct portion of the subject; and each statement in an affidavit must show the means of knowledge of the person making such statement: 15 & 16 Vic. c. 86, s. 37; Ord. 5 Feb. 1861, r. 23; Dan. Pr. 827. There is no occasion to commence each paragraph with "that," or, "I say that," or, "and I further say that." A schedule referred to in an affidavit as "hereunder written" should be placed after the jurat; but a schedule referred to as "the schedule [Or, the first, &c., schedule] set forth in this my affidavit," should be placed before the jurat: Dan. Pr. 829. The schedules may also be embodied in the affidavit: ib. A document may be referred to in an affidavit, either as an exhibit, thus: "produced and shown to me at the time of swearing this my affidavit, and marked with the letter A." (or, "now produced and shown to me, and marked A.'); or as "hereunto annexed." In the former case, the person before whom the affidavit is sworn must inquire whether the deponent has seen the document, and is aware of the contents thereof: in the latter, the document should be annexed to the affidavit at the time it is sworn; and the affidavit cannot properly be filed without it. It is, therefore, generally more convenient not to refer to a document as "hereunto annexed" : Dan. Pr. 829 ; Braithwaite's Oaths in Chan. 44 ; and if intended to be used at Chambers, it must not be so referred to : ib. ; Regul. 8 Aug. 1857, r. 11. Any document referred to must be distinguished by some mark placed upon it, and be signed by the person before whom the affidavit is sworn : Dan. Pr. 829 ; and see post, No. 41.

(y) A memorandum to this effect is required to be written at the foot of every affidavit or affirmation, before it can be used as evidence : Ord. 5 Feb. 1861, rr. 18, 25 ; Prel. Ord. 10 (6) ; Dan. Pr. 832.

(a) As to the persons before whom an affidavit may be sworn, and their fees, see Dan. Pr. 686, et seq., 825, et seq.; and post, No. 38. Where a schedule is placed after the jurat, the officer before whom the affidavit is sworn must sign his name at the end of the schedule, or of each schedule, as well as to the jurat; and he usually adds to his signature his official title, or an abridgement of it; as thus: "Chief Clerk"—or, "a Commissioner, &c."

A Christian, in making oath, holds the book in his or her right hand: the hand being uncovered, and, in the case of a male person, the head being uncovered also. A Jew, in making oath, holds the book in his right hand, the hand being uncovered, but the head covered. If, however, the Jew wishes to make oath with his head uncovered, the officer cannot object to it: Dan. Pr. 679; Braithwaite's Oaths in Chan. 25. Oaths are to be administered in a reverent manner: Ord. XIX. 14.

(c) The jurat should be written at the end of the affidavit. (3.) Name and address of plaintiff (f).

HUMBLY COMPLAINING, showeth unto his Lordship, John Lee, of Bedford Square, in the county of Middlesex, esquire, the above named plaintiff, as follows :—

(4.) Statements and allegations (g).

1. The defendant James Styles, being seised in fee simple of a

(a) As to the bill, in general, see Dan. Pr. 288, et seq. As to the authority necessary to commence or defend a suit, and the mode of staying an unauthorised suit, see ib. 289 ; and post, Chap. XIX., XLIV. Ord. IX. 2, provides, that bills may be in a form similar to the form set out in schedule A. thereto, with such variations as the nature and circumstances of each particular case may require. The form so scheduled is that above set forth. For model forms of interrogatories and answer, corresponding to the model form of bill, see post, No. 351, and Chap. XVII. ; and for other forms and precedents of bills, interrogatories, answers, &c., see post, Chap XLVI. As to the matter of which a bill in equity ought to consist, see Dan. farm called "Blackacre," in the parish of A, in the county of B, with the appurtenances, did, by an indenture dated the 1st of May, 1850, and made between the defendant James Styles of the one part, and the plaintiff of the other part, grant and convey the said farm, with the appurtenances, unto and to the use of the plaintiff, his heirs and assigns: subject to a proviso for redemption thereof, in case the defendant James Styles, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns should, on the 1st of May, 1851, pay to the plaintiff, his executors, administrators, or assigns, the sum of £5000, with interest thereon at the rate of £5 per centum per annum: as by the said indenture will appear.

2. The whole of the said sum of £5000, together with interest thereon at the rate aforesaid, is now due to the plaintiff.

3. The defendant Henry Jones claims to have some charge upon the farm and premises comprised in the said indenture of mortgage of the 1st of May, 1850: which charge is subsequent to the plaintiff's said mortgage.

4. The plaintiff has frequently applied to the said defendants James Styles and Henry Jones, and required them either to pay the said debt, or else to release the equity of redemption of the premises, but they have refused so to do.

5. The defendants James Styles and Henry Jones pretend that there are some other mortgages, charges, or incumbrances affecting the premises, but they refuse to discover the particulars thereof.

6. There are divers valuable oak, elm, and other timber and timber-like trees growing and standing on the farm and lands comprised in the said indenture of mortgage of the 1st of May, 1850: which trees and timber are a material part of the plaintiff's said security; and if the same or any of them were felled and taken away, the said mortgaged premises would be an insufficient security to the plaintiff for the money due thereon.

7. The defendant James Styles, who is in possession of the said farm, has marked for felling a large quantity of the said oak and elm trees and other timber, and he has by hand-bills, published on the 2nd December instant, announced the same for sale, and he threatens and intends forthwith to cut down and dispose of a considerable quantity of the said trees and timber on the said farm.

(5.) Prayer (h).

PRAYER.

The plaintiff prays as follows:—

1. That an account may be taken of what is due for principal and interest on the said mortgage.
2. That the defendants James Styles and Henry Jones may be decreed to pay to the plaintiff the amount which shall be so found due, together with his costs of this suit, by a short day to be appointed for that purpose, or, in default thereof, that the defendants James Styles and

(h) For other forms, see post, Chap. XLVI.

Henry Jones, and all persons claiming under them, may be absolutely foreclosed of all right and equity of redemption in or to the said mortgaged premises.

3. That the defendant James Styles may be restrained by the injunction of this honourable Court from felling, cutting, or disposing of any of the timber or timber-like trees now standing or growing in or upon the said farm and premises comprised in the said indenture of mortgage, or any part thereof.

4. That the plaintiff may have such further or other relief as the nature of the case may require.

(6.) Defendants' names.

The defendants to this Bill of Complaint are :—
James Styles,
Henry Jones.

Y. Y.
(Name of counsel.)

(7.) Name and address of plaintiff's solicitor (i).

NOTE.—This bill is filed by Messrs. A. B. and C. D., of Lincoln's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, solicitors for the above named plaintiff.

151.
Titles.

2. Other Forms of Titles.

The title of the suit is a collection of the names of the plaintiffs, as they appear in the introductory part of the bill, and of the defendants as they are set forth at the foot of the prayer ; and care should be taken that the names are the same in both cases. Where the plaintiff sues on behalf of himself and others, or is under disability, it is usual to state that fact in the title of the bill, and of the future proceedings in the cause ; as thus :—

Between John Lee, on behalf of himself and all other the creditors of A.B., deceased (k) . . . . plaintiff.

Or,

John Lee, an infant, by C. D., his next friend, plaintiff.

Or,

John Lee, a person of unsound mind, by C. D., the committee of his estate, and the said C. D., plaintiffs.

Or,

John Lee, a person of unsound mind, not so found, by C. D., his next friend . . . . . plaintiff.

Or,

Jane Lee, wife of the defendant John Lee, by C. D., her next friend . . . . . plaintiff.

(i) See Ord. III. 2, 5 ; Dan. Pr. 362, 412, 413. For other forms, see ante, Nos. 6, 10. On amending the bill, the name of the solicitor cannot be altered, unless an order to change has been obtained : Braithwaite's Pr. 299.

(k) See Dan. Pr. 336, 369.

Where, also, the defendant is stated to be out of the jurisdiction, or is named as a formal party only, the title should so express it; as thus:

Henry Jones, out of the jurisdiction (l),
Or,
James Styles, to be bound upon service of a copy of the bill (m).

It is not usual to state in the title of the bill that a defendant is under disability; but after a guardian ad litem of such defendant has been appointed, that fact should be stated in the title of all future proceedings; as thus:

James Styles, an infant, by Edward Styles, his guardian.
Or,
James Styles, a person of unsound mind, not so found, by Edward Styles, his guardian.
Or,
James Styles, and Amy the wife of the said James Styles, by Edward Styles, her guardian.

Section II.—Printing and Filing the Bill.—Branch of Court.—Affidavit to accompany.—Registry as lis pendens.

188.
Directions as to the manner of printing bills and answers, and correcting the proof sheets (u).

It is the business of the plaintiff to get the bill printed by such printer as he may select (x). Bills must be printed on cream wove machine drawing foolscap folio paper, 19 lbs. per mill ream, in pica type, leaded, with an inner margin about three-quarters of an inch wide, and an outer margin about two inches and a-half wide; and dates and sums occurring therein must be expressed by figures instead of words (y). Answers must be printed on paper of the same size and description, and in the same type, style, and manner on and in which bills are required to be printed (z).

In printing the title of the cause, and the names of the defendants at the foot of the prayer, the name of each plaintiff and of each defendant should form a separate line (a). Quotations occurring in a bill or answer should be distinguished by turned commas; but it is not now the practice to use any marks of punctuation in printing bills and answers.

The first printed copy furnished by the printer of the bill or answer (b) is called "a proof" (c). When a fair print of the proof as altered and corrected is required, the words "Send revise" should be written on the upper part of the first page, before it is returned to the printer. The fair print is called "a revise"; and if a second fair print, as further altered, is needed, the words "Send a second revise" should be marked on it, as above. When the print is finally approved, the word "Press," together with the number of copies required to be struck off, should be written on the first page, on returning it to the printer.

In settling for the printer the draft or copy of the bill or answer, and in making additions to the proofs and revises, such words as are required to be printed in italics should be scored under once; if in SMALL CAPITALS, twice; and if in CAPITALS, three times; and attention to the following rules in correcting the proofs and revises will much facilitate the passage of the bill or answer through the press:—

(u) See Dan. Pr. 361.

(x) As to when a written bill will be temporarily allowed to be filed, see ib.

(y) Ord. IX. 3; Dan. Pr. 361.

(z) Ord. 6 Mar. 1860, r. 3; Dan. Pr. 698.

(a) As in No. 150, ante.

(b) The draft or copy of the bill or answer, as placed in the hands of the printer, is technically called "copy."

(c) The proof of the bill should be very carefully examined and corrected: as no bill will be filed as a printed bill unless alterations, if any, are made in type: Dan. Pr. 361, n. (c).

(1). If a word printed in small letters is to be changed to capitals: draw a line under it, and write caps. in the margin.

(2). If a word so printed is to be changed to small capitals: draw a line under it, and write sm. caps. in the margin.

(3). If a word so printed is to be changed to italic: draw a line under it, and write ital. in the margin.

(4). If a word printed in capitals is to be changed to small capitals: draw a line under it, and write sm. caps. in the margin.

(5). If a word printed in small capitals is to be changed to small letters: draw a line under it, and write l. c. (lower case) in the margin.

(6). If a word printed in italic is to be changed to roman: draw a line under it, and write rom. in the margin.

(7). If a break or new paragraph has been omitted to be made: place a vertical mark before the first word of the new paragraph, and write n. p. in the margin.

(8). If marks of quotation are omitted: indicate the places by carets, and place turned commas in the margin.

(9). If a break has been improperly made: draw the pen from one line to the other, and write run on in the margin.

(10). If a letter or word is omitted: point out the omission by a caret, and place the omitted letter or word in the margin.

(11). If several words are omitted: indicate the place by a caret, insert Rider A. (or, B., &c.) in the margin, and write the omitted words at the top or bottom of the page, or on an annexed slip of paper: preceded, in either case, by the like sign of Rider A., &c.

(12). If a word is to be omitted: strike it through, and write dele in the margin.

(13). If one word is to be substituted for another: strike out the word to be omitted, and write the substituted word in the margin.

(14). If a word, though struck out, is to remain in: place dots under it, and write stet in the margin.

(15). Where words are transposed: write trs. in the margin, and indicate the order in which they should stand by a wave line; or by numbers placed over the words, if the words are not contiguous, or more than three are misplaced.

(16). If a wrong letter is used: draw the pen through it, and place the right letter in the margin.

(17). If a capital letter is used instead of a small letter: draw the pen through it, and write l. c. (lower case) in the margin.

(18). If a small letter is used instead of a capital: draw the pen through it, and write cap. in the margin.

(19). Where letters are transposed: strike them through, and place the proper letters in the margin.

(20). If a letter of a wrong size or face is used: draw a line through it, and write w.f. (wrong fount) in the margin.

(21). If a space between two words is omitted: place a caret between the words, and put this (#) mark in the margin.

(22). If two letters are to be drawn together: place these marks (⁀) between them, and also in the margin.

(23). If a wrong mark of punctuation is used: draw the pen through it, and place the right mark in the margin.

(24). If a letter is placed upside down: draw the pen through it, and place this mark (ɔ) in the margin.

(25). Where lines or words are not straight: indicate it by short lines under the words, and write straighten in the margin.

(26). If a hyphen is to be inserted: indicate the place by a caret, and place this mark (/-/) in the margin.

(27). Where a black mark (called a space or quadrat) appears: underscore it, and place this mark (⌊) in the margin.

The above rules are exemplified in the following specimen of a proof corrected in manuscript. The proof is printed in "pica type, leaded" (d), and the numbers in the margin correspond with the numbers of the rules:

(1) Caps — Bill of Complaint.

(2) Sm. caps — To the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

(4) Sm. caps. (5) l. c. (6) rom. — HUMBLY COMPLAINING, showeth unto his Lordship, JOHN LEE, of Bedford Square, in the county of Middlesex, esquire, the above named plaintiff, as follows:—

heirs, executors, ~~administrators~~, or assigns should, on the 1st of May, 1851, to the plaintiff, pay his executors, administrators, or assigns the sum of £5000, with interest thereon, at the rate of £5 per centum per annum: as by the said indenture will appear.

2. The whole of the said sum of £5000, together with interest thereon at the rate aforesaid, is now due to the plaintiff.

3. The defendant Henry Jones claims to have some charge upon the farm and premises comprised in the said indenture of mortgage of the 1st of May, 1850: which charge is subsequent to the plaintiff's said mortgage

4. The plaintiff has frequently applied to the said defendants James Styles and Henry Jones and required them either to pay the said debt, or else to release the equity of redemption of the premises, but they have refused so to do.

5. The defendants James Styles and Henry Jones pretend that there are some other mortgages, charges, or incumbrances affecting the premises, but they refuse to discover the particulars thereof.

6. There are divers valuable oak, elm, and other timber and timberlike trees growing and standing, &c.

The appearance of the revise, or corrected print, of the above proof will be understood by referring to No. 150, ante: in which all the corrections are shown.

Reference to the record; and date of filing.

On the bill being filed (e), the Record and Writ Clerk will insert at the top or upper part of the bill, the year, the letter, and the number by which the cause is distinguished in the cause book kept by him; as thus: 1867, A. No. 50; and this "reference to the record" must thenceforth be plainly written or stamped on the first page of every decree, order, report, certificate, petition, or document made, presented, or used in such cause (f). The Record and Writ Clerk will also add to the bill the date on which it was filed (g); as thus: Filed 1st day of January, 1867. If the bill is afterwards amended—or, re-amended—that fact is also noted on the bill; as thus: Amended 21st day of January, 1867, by order dated 19th day of January, 1867—Re-amended 1st day of March, 1867, by order dated 24th day of February, 1867. In practice, the appropriate memorandum is printed on the original bill, and on the reprint, if any, of the amended or re-amended bill, before it is tendered for filing; but the memorandum may, in every case, be written, instead of printed (h).

Branch of Court.

Before any original bill is filed it must, at the option of the plaintiff, be distinctly marked, at or near the top or upper part thereof, either with the words "Lord Chancellor," or with the words "Master of the Rolls"; and if with the words "Lord Chancellor," then also with the name of one of the Vice-Chancellors for the time being, at the option of the plaintiff (i). The usual place is immediately under the words "In Chancery"; as thus:

In Chancery.
Lord Chancellor.
Vice-Chancellor Stuart.
[Or,
Vice-Chancellor Wood.
Or,
Vice-Chancellor Malins.]
In Chancery.
Master of the Rolls.

The humble petition of the plaintiff [Or, defendant A. B.].

Showeth as follows:—

1. Your petitioner [Or, The plaintiff] filed his bill in this suit on the —— day of ——, 186—, against the defendant A. B. [Or, your petitioner].

2. On the —— day of ——, 186—, a memorandum of the said bill was filed with the Senior Master of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, for entry as a lis pendens, pursuant to the statute in this behalf, so as to affect the estate of the said defendant [Or, your petitioner]: who was described in such memorandum as (Insert names and place of abode, &c.)—If so: and on the —— day of ——, 186—, a like memorandum was filed with the said Senior Master for re-entry pursuant to the said statute.

C. D., the other plaintiff above named": See Pask's Sup. 31, 32, ed. 3. For full instructions as to executing an acknowledgment of satisfaction, see ib. 31—34. The fee for entering satisfaction is 2*s.* 6*d.*; and for a certificate of such entry, 1*s.*: 23 & 24 Vic. c. 115, s. 2. As to the acknowledgment of satisfaction of the registry of a summons, or special case, see post, Chap. XXIX., XLIII.

(n) See Dan. Pr. 366, 1924. For order in like case, see Pask's Pr. 123. The practice of getting the entry of a lis pendens satisfied under an order obtained on petition of course is still frequently resorted to, notwithstanding the 23 & 24 Vic. c. 115, s. 2, mentioned above; and see Pask's Sup. 30, n. (l), ed. 3.

3. The purposes for which the said bill was registered as aforesaid have been satisfied, and your petitioner is desirous that the entry of the said lis pendens should be discharged.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays, that the proper officer may be at liberty to enter satisfaction in respect of the said lis pendens, so registered as aforesaid, in the books kept by him for that purpose (o).

And your petitioner will ever pray, &c.

(o) When the defendant petitions, the consent of the plaintiff's solicitor to the prayer must be obtained. For form of consent, see ante, No. 56. As to the course, where the plaintiff declines to apply, or to consent to an application by the defendant, for an order to enter satisfaction, see Dan. Pr. 366. (p) For the practice as to amending bills, see Dan. Pr. xxxvi. xxxviii., 366—388, 1962—1964; and in suits by paupers, ib. 43. Counsel's signature is not necessary to amendments of this kind, if the errors are specified in the order to amend: see Dan. Pr. 295, n. (u), 373. The errors to be corrected should be stated in the motion paper or petition. An order of course to amend a clerical error cannot, after decree, be obtained on petition. A print of the bill, and the plea, accompany.

502.
Petition of course, for the like (t).

Title—and address to the M. R. : see ante, No. 54.

The humble petition of the plaintiff.

Showeth as follows :

1. Your petitioner lately filed his bill in this cause against the defendant A. B.

2. On the —— of ——, 186—, the said defendant filed a plea to the said bill, and thereby averred that—State substance of plea ; as thus : that the said bill seeks the same relief against him, and is for the same matters, as the bill filed in a certain suit of C. v. D. (186—. C. No. —), in this honourable Court [or as may be].

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays, that the usual inquiry may be made as to the truth of the said plea.

And your petitioner will ever pray, &c.

Order for inquiry whether a suit in the Chancery of Lancaster, and a suit in the High Court, are for the same matter (u).

[Formal parts.]—It is ordered that an inquiry be made, whether the claim in the former suit in the Court of Chancery in the County Palatine of Lancaster is still pending ; and whether the said claim and the plaintiff's bill are for and in respect of the same matters, and for the same purposes or not ; and whether the plaintiff may obtain the same relief in the said former suit as in the present suit, touching the matters in the said claim and bill mentioned or not.

(t) See Dan. Pr. 640, 644, 1916, 1924 ; Ord. XIV. 6. For order in like case, see Seton, 1259, No. 16. As to the pleas whereof an inquiry into their truth will be directed, see Dan. Pr. 583, et seq., 608, et seq., 640.

(u) Leigh v. Turner, M. R. 2 Nov. 1865, Reg. Lib. B. 2109. For the Chief Clerk's certificate, see post, No. 503 a ; and for the further order, see M. R. 8 Feb. 1866, Reg. Lib. B. 347 : 14 W. R. 361 ; and see Dan. Pr. 587, 588, 610, 640.

503a.
Chief Clerk's certificate of the result of the inquiry.

[Title.]—In pursuance of the directions given to me by the Master of the Rolls, I hereby certify that the result of the inquiry which has been made in pursuance of the order made in this cause dated the 2nd day of November, 1865, is as follows:

The plaintiff, and defendants, J. T., and E. G., have attended by their respective solicitors.

(1.) The claim in the former suit in the Court of Chancery in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in the said order mentioned, is still pending.

(2.) The said claim and the plaintiff's bill are not for and in respect of the same matters, and for the same purposes: inasmuch as the bill prays for the appointment of new trustees, and the appointment of a receiver of the rents and profits of the real estate of A. H., the testator in the said bill named, and of his outstanding personal estate: whereas the said claim does not claim the appointment of new trustees, and claims the appointment of a receiver of the rents and profits of the real estate only.

(3.) By an order made in the said former suit in the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, dated the 7th August, 1861, it was ordered that J. L. should be discharged from being the plaintiff's next friend, but without prejudice to his liability for costs theretofore incurred; and it was ordered that all further proceedings in that cause (except under that order) should be stayed until a new and sufficient next friend should have been named and appointed for the plaintiff, or until the plaintiff should have obtained liberty to proceed with her suit in formâ pauperis without a next friend, or until the further order of the Court; but that order was to be without prejudice to the question whether the plaintiff is or will be entitled to obtain an order for liberty to proceed in formâ pauperis without a next friend, and also without prejudice to any other question.

On the 2nd day of February, 1865, H. H., one of the executors, and a devisee in trust, under the said A. H.'s will, died.

The plaintiff cannot obtain the same relief in the said former suit, in the Court of Chancery in the County Palatine of Lancaster, as in the present suit, touching the matters in the said bill mentioned, unless she amends her said claim in respect of the matters before mentioned, and performs one of the conditions imposed by the said order, and amends the said claim by making the representatives of the said H. H. parties thereto.

The evidence produced consists of the claim in the said former suit in the Court of Chancery in the County Palatine of Lancaster, filed the 16th July, 1861, the said order in the last mentioned suit dated the 7th August, 1861, and the certificate of the Registrar of the said Court of Chancery in the County Palatine of Lancaster dated the 20th November, 1865.

(Dated 20th, and approved and filed 26th January, 1866.)

504.
Motion paper, to dismiss bill, where inquiry as to truth of plea of a former suit is not duly prosecuted (x).

Formal parts: see ante, No. 51.

Ord. 14, r. 6, an order directing an inquiry as to the truth of the defendant's plea of a former suit for the same matter—Or, if order obtained, say, after r. 6: the Chief Clerk's certificate of the result of the inquiry directed by the order dated the ——, 186—, as to the truth of the defendant's plea of a former suit for the same matter.

2. The plaintiff has neglected to obtain the Chief Clerk's certificate of the result of the said inquiry, in pursuance of the said order; and the time limited in that behalf has expired.

(b) Ibid. 674—680. As to the general nature of answers, see ib. 659—673; as to severance by co-defendants, and the costs of separate answers, ib. 674, 675, 1333; Ord. XL. 12; and as to the joinder of several defences, see Dan. Pr. 728—730; and post, Chap. XVIII. XV. 1; Dan. Pr. 675. The answer, and every schedule or document annexed thereto, must be written bookwise, or printed, on paper of the same description and size as that on which bills are printed: Ord. 6 Mar. 1860, r. 1. As to such paper, see ante, No. 188. Under special circumstances, however, answers and schedules not so written have been allowed to be filed, on application to the Court: Dan. Pr. 685, n. (m). Dates and sums occurring in the answer should be expressed by figures instead of words: ib. 361, 685. For the mode of referring in the answer to schedules and exhibits thereto, see ante, No. 12, n. (u). As to erasures and alterations, see Dan. Pr. 685; and ante, No. 12, n. As to scandal in an answer, see ante, No. 58, et seq., and notes thereto; and as to impertinence therein, see Dan. Pr. 324—326, 701; 15 & 16 Vic. c. 86, s. 17; Ord. XL. 9, 11.

(c) Ord. XV. 1, provides that answers may be in a form similar to the form set out in Schedule C. thereto, with such variations as the nature and circumstances of each particular case may require. The form so scheduled is that above set forth. For model forms of bill and interrogatories, corresponding to the model form of answer, see ante, Nos. 150, and 351. For collections of forms of answers, see 2 Van Hey. 1—71; Willis, Eq. Pl. 587—617; Whitworth, Eq. Prec. 591—612; Drewry, Eq. Pl. 148—151; Lewis, Eq. Drafting, 345—349; and post, Chap. (3.) Statements and allegations (f).

1. I believe that the defendant Henry Jones does claim to have a charge upon the farm and premises comprised in the indenture of mortgage of the 1st. of May, 1850, in the plaintiff's bill mentioned.

2. Such charge was created by an indenture, dated the 1st of November, 1850, made between myself of the one part, and the said defendant Henry Jones of the other part, whereby I granted and conveyed the said farm and premises, subject to the mortgage made by the said indenture of the 1st of May, 1850, unto the defendant Henry Jones, for securing the sum of £2,000, and interest, at the rate of £5 per centum per annum ; and the amount due thereon is the said sum of £2,000, with interest thereon from the date of such mortgage.

3. To the best of my knowledge, remembrance, and belief, there is not any other mortgage, charge, or incumbrance, affecting the aforesaid premises.

Whereas C. D., plaintiff [Or, if so: C. D. and another—Or, others—plaintiffs], lately exhibited his [Or, their] bill of complaint in our High Court of Chancery, against A. B. (q):

And whereas the said defendant A. B. hath been duly served with a copy of the said bill, having an indorsement thereon commanding him to appear before us in our said Chancery at a certain day now past, and to observe what our said Court should direct:—If so: And whereas interrogatories for the examination of the said defendant in answer to the said bill have been duly delivered to him:

And whereas the said defendant hath appeared to the said bill; and desires to put in his answer [or as may be] to the said bill:

Know ye, that we have given unto you, any three or two of you, full power and authority to take the answer [or as may be] of the said defendant to the said bill (r): And therefore we command you, any three or two of you, that at such certain day and place as you shall think fit, you go to the said defendant, if he cannot conveniently come to you, and take his answer (s), to the said bill on his corporal oath upon the Holy Evangelists (t), to be administered by you, any three or two of you: the said answer

(o) See Dan. Pr. 692. This form has been altered from Veal's Pr. 51, to meet the changes in practice which have since taken place.

(p) Where the plaintiff nominates commissioners, those of the defendant are inserted before those of the plaintiff. The christian and surnames only, without the residences and descriptions, are stated: Veal's Pr. 51. There must be at least four commissioners named, and two at least must act: ib.

(q) The names of any other defendants than the defendant whose answer, &c., is to be taken, need not be mentioned: Veal's Pr. 52.

(r) If a plea and answer, insert here: "on his corporal oath, upon the Holy Evangelists; or his plea to the said bill on his corporal oath: to be administered by you, any three or two of you:" see Veal's Pr. 56; but see n. (t) inf., as to a peer, or a Jew.

(s) If a plea and answer, proceed thus: "or plea, respectively, as aforesaid, to the said bill: the same being distinctly," &c., as above, omitting the intervening words: see Veal's Pr. 55.

(t) If the defendant is entitled to the privilege of peerage, substitute "upon his protestation of honour," for "his corporal oath upon the Holy Evangelists"; and if the defendant is a Jew, the words "upon the Holy Evangelists" may be left out: Dan. Pr. 692. Where the defendant is a Quaker, or other person exempted from taking an oath by statute, the writ should direct the commissioners to take the answer on his solemn declaration or affirmation: Dan. Pr. 678, n. (y), 692. For form of commission to take the answer of a Quaker, see Veal's Pr. 54; of a corporation, ib. 57; and of an infant, by his guardian, ib. 60; and see Hinde, 232, et seq. As to the course, where the defendant is a Gentoo, see Dan. Replication (f).

In Chancery.

(Set out the full title of the cause, and reference to the record (g).)

The plaintiff in this cause hereby joins issue with the defendants (h) (Insert the names of all the defendants who have answered or pleaded—or against whom a traversing note has been filed—or who have not been required to answer, and have not answered, the bill); and will hear the cause on bill and answer against the defendants (Insert the names of all the defendants against whom the cause is to be heard on bill and answer); and on the order to take the bill as confessed against the defendant G. H. [or as the case may be].

(Name, &c., of solicitor or party filing the replication: see ante, No. 5, or 9.)

705.
Notice of filing replication (i).

Title, and address: see ante, No. 52.

Take notice, that I have this day filed a replication in this cause, in the form following; that is to say:

(Set out the replication, verbatim.)

Dated this —— day of ——, 186—.

(Name, &c., of solicitor or party giving the notice: see ante, No. 5, or 9.)

(f) See Dan. Pr. 771, 772. For the above form, see Ord. XVII. 2. The replication is prepared by the plaintiff's solicitor; and must be written on paper of the same description and size as that on which bills are printed: Ord. 6 Mar. 1860, r. 16. As to such paper, see ante, No. 188. The replication does not require the signature of counsel; it is filed at the Record and Writ Clerks' office; and no fee is payable on filing it: Dan. Pr. 772.

(g) The full title of the cause, as it stands at the time the replication is filed, must be set forth in the heading of the replication; but only the names of such of the defendants as have appeared should be inserted or referred to in the body. If a defendant's name has been misspelt by the plaintiff, and such defendant has corrected the same by his answer, but the plaintiff has not afterwards amended his bill with respect to such name, the correction should be shown in the title of the replication: as thus, "John Jones (in the bill called William Jones)." In the body of the replication, however, the correct name only should be inserted. Where any defendant has died since the bill was filed, the words "since deceased" should follow his name in the title; but his name should be omitted in the body of the replication. The names of those defendants who are stated in the bill to be out of the jurisdiction, and who have not appeared, must be inserted in the title; but not in the body. The names of such formal defendants as have been served with a copy of the bill must be inserted in the title; but only such of them as have entered a common appearance should be named in the body: Dan. Pr. 772.

(h) If the plaintiff joins issue with all the defendants, their names need not be here repeated: it is sufficient, in such case, to designate them as "all the defendants"; but if he does not join issue with all, the names of the defendants with whom issue is joined must be here set out: Dan. Pr. 772.

(i) See Dan. Pr. 773; Ord. III. 9; XXXVII. 2. In practice, it is usual

Ex parte the Official Liquidator of the L. B. Company.

To the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls.

The humble petition of W. T., of, &c., the Official Liquidator of the L. B. Company.

Showeth as follows:

[1—9. After statements showing the formation of the Company —that W. K. was the holder of certain shares therein—that the Company had, by order dated the 13th of October, 1864, been ordered to be wound up, under "The Companies Act, 1862"—that W. K. had been settled on the list of contributories, in respect of the said shares—that two orders for calls had been made—that by another order, dated the 11th of January, 1866, W. K. had been ordered to pay to the petitioner £2120, due from him in respect of such calls—and that he had been served with such order, but had not paid such sum, or any part thereof—the petition proceeded as follows:—]

10. At the time when the said order of the 11th of January, 1866, was made, the said W. K. was seized of, and entitled to, certain lands and hereditaments in the county of Y.; that is to say: he was absolutely entitled to the fee simple and inheritance of certain messuages and lands, containing 224 acres, called by the name of O. Farm, situate in the parish of T., in remainder expectant upon the death of W. K. G., and failure of his issue male; and he was entitled in possession to the fee simple and inheritance of a close of land containing 2 a. 3 r. 0 p., situate in the parish of S.

11. Under the circumstances aforesaid, on the 3rd of March, 1866, your petitioner, being desirous of enforcing payment of the last mentioned sum, sued out a writ of elegit, directed to the Sheriff of Y. (f), to enforce payment of the sum which the said order of the 11th of January, 1866, directed to be paid.

12. In pursuance of the said writ, the Sheriff of the county of Y. duly caused an inquisition to be made as to the goods and chattels, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, in the county of Y, of which the said W. K. was seized or possessed on the the registry, the consent of the solicitor of the person who registered the decree, &c., must be obtained to the prayer. For form of consent, see ante, No. 56.

(e) Re Kirby (Presented 28 May, 1866); and see 27 & 28 Vic. c. 112, s. 4; Dan. Pr. 932, 933.

(f) As to the writ of elegit, see post, Nos. 947, et seq., and notes thereto.

11th of January, 1866, or at any time after that day; and by the said inquisition it was found that the said W. K. was seized of, and entitled to, the before mentioned lands and hereditaments, for the estate, and in manner, hereinbefore also mentioned; and that the said farm in the parish of T. was of the value of £370 a year, and the said close in the parish of S. was of the value of £5 10*s.* a year; and the said Sheriff caused the said lands and hereditaments to be delivered in execution to your petitioner, as Official Liquidator of the L. B. Company: subject, as to the said lands and hereditaments in the parish of T., to the estate therein of the said W. K. G., and his issue male. The return of the said Sheriff to the said writ has been duly made, and filed in this Court.

13. No part of the said sum of £2120 has ever been paid, or satisfied; and the last mentioned sum, with interest thereon from the 11th of January, 1866, is due to your petitioner, as such Official Liquidator as aforesaid.

14. The said order of the 11th of January, 1866, has been duly registered in the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, and at W. in the county of Y. The said writ of elegit has also been registered at W. aforesaid; and on the 18th day of May, 1866, was duly registered in the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, in manner required by the above mentioned Act.

[15. And after statements to the effect that W. K. was entitled to the said hereditaments, or part thereof, under the will of R. K.—that R. K. was a holder of shares in the said Company, and that W. K., as his executor, had been settled on the list in respect thereof—that calls made in respect of such shares remained unpaid—and that the petitioner had instituted a suit for the administration of R. K.'s estate—the petition concluded as follows:—]

16. The estate and interest of the said W. K. of and in the said lands and hereditaments, to which he is entitled under the will of the said R. K., is subject to the claims of your petitioner in the said suit.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays your lordship, that the interest of the said W. K. of and in the said lands and hereditaments in the respective parishes of T. and S., in the county of Y., which have been delivered in execution to your petitioner as aforesaid, may be sold; and that the money arising from such sale may be applied in paying to your petitioner what is due to him under the said order of the 11th of January, 1866; Or, if there are any other charges on the interest of the said W. K. in the said lands and hereditaments, that the proceeds of the said sale may be applied in payment of what is due to the parties entitled to charges on such interest, according to their respective priorities.

And that for effectuating the purposes aforesaid, all proper and necessary accounts may be taken, directions given, and inquiries made.
Or, that your lordship will make such further or other order in the premises, as to your lordship shall seem meet.

And your petitioner will ever pray, &c.

Note: It is intended to serve this petition on the said W. K.

897. Order for inquiries thereon (g).

Date, and title, and other formal parts.

His lordship doth order that the following inquiries be made, namely:—

1. An inquiry of what the lands and hereditaments in the respective parishes of T. and S., in the county of Y., which have been delivered in execution to the petitioner, as in the petition mentioned, consist.

2. An inquiry what is the interest of the respondent W. K. therein.

3. An inquiry whether any other of the creditors of the said W. K. is entitled to any judgment, statute, or recognizance which is a charge on the interest of the said W. K. in the said lands.

And the further hearing of the said petition is adjourned, until after the Chief Clerk shall have made his certificate (h).

Wherefore, I did, before the said —— day of —— (the last recited date), and while the said renewal was in full force, discharge the said —— from my custody. And I further say, that on the said —— day of —— (the last recited date), the said County Court, duly holden, duly, according to the said Acts, renewed the said protection of the said ——, until a day which has not yet arrived, to wit, until the —— day of —— next. Notice to creditors, under 22 & 23 Vic. c. 35, s. 29 (x).

John Thomas [or as may be], deceased.
Statutory Notice to Creditors.

Pursuant to the twenty-ninth section of the Act of Parliament of the 22nd & 23rd Victoria, chapter 35, intituled "An Act to further amend the law of property, and to relieve trustees," notice is hereby given, that all creditors and other persons having any claims or demands upon or against the estate of John Thomas [or as may be], late of (add residence and addition) : who died at ——, in the (county) of ——, on the —— day of ——, 186—, and whose will was duly proved by [Or, and letters of administration of whose personal estate was duly granted to] C. D., of (residence and addition), in [Or, by] Her Majesty's Court of Probate, Principal registry [Or, District registry at ——], on the —— day of ——, 186— : are hereby required to send, in writing, the particulars of their claims or demands to the said C. D., at his residence aforesaid [Or, to the undersigned E. F., the solicitor of the said C. D., at the office of the said E. F., situate at (State where), in the (county) of ——], on or before the —— day of ——, 186—. And notice is hereby also given, that, at the expiration of the last mentioned day, the said C. D. will be at liberty to distribute the assets of the said John Thomas [or as may be], or any part thereof, amongst the parties entitled thereto, having regard to the claims of which the said C. D. has then had notice ; and that the said C. D. will not be liable for the assets, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose claim the said C. D. has not had notice at the time of such distribution. Dated this —— day of ——, 186—.

C. D.
[Or, E. F., solicitor for the said C. D.]

(x) See 22 & 23 Vic. c. 35, s. 29 ; Dan. Pr. 1100. The statutory notice is, by section 29, to operate as an indemnity, "where an executor or administrator shall have given such or the like notices as, in the opinion of the Court in which such executor or administrator is sought to be charged, would have been given by the Court of Chancery, in an administration suit." Beyond directing one insertion in the London Gazette, there appears to be no uniform rule of practice at the Chambers of the Equity Judges as to giving notices to creditors in an administration suit. The usual course is to direct the notices to be inserted in certain newspapers, and to be repeated a certain number of times ; but in how many and what newspapers, and how many times, depends, in the particular case, on the magnitude of the property in question, the position in life of the deceased, and the places where he resided, or carried on business.

Petition, to be admitted as a creditor, after direction to apportion fund amongst certified creditors, but before apportionment made (s).

Title—and address to the L. C., and M. R. : see ante, No. 54.

The humble petition of A. B., of (residence and addition).

Showeth as follows :

Show nature of the suit, and the proceedings had therein ; as thus : 1. This suit was instituted for the administration of the estate of C. D. ; and by the decree made therein by your lordship [Or, by his honour the Vice-Chancellor ——] dated the —— day of ——, 186—, the usual accounts and inquiries were directed to be taken and made, including an account of the debts of the said C. D.

(q) See Dan. Pr. 1113.

(r) Ibid. 1114 ; Ord. XXXV. 43 ; Ord. 27 May, 1865, r. 10.

(s) See Dan. Pr. 1114. As to service of the petition, see ib.

2. The Chief Clerk of your lordship [Or, of the said Vice-Chancellor] made his certificate, dated the —— day of ——, 186—, in pursuance of the said decree ; and thereby certified the result of the said account of debts, and of the other accounts and inquiries directed by the said decree.

3. The said Chief Clerk's certificate having become binding on the —— day of ——, 186—, this cause came on to be heard on further consideration before your lordship [Or, the said Vice-Chancellor], on the —— day of ——, 186— ; and by an order then made of that date, the costs of this suit were directed to be taxed, and to be paid out of the sum of £1000 cash in the bank on the credit of this cause ; and the residue of such cash was thereby directed to be apportioned amongst the creditors of the said C. D., in proportion to the respective amounts certified to be due to them by the said Chief Clerk's certificate.

4. Pursuant to the said order, the costs thereby directed to be taxed have been carried into the office of the Taxing Master ; but the taxation thereof is not yet completed ; and no apportionment of the residue of the said fund has yet been made.

Show nature of petitioner's claim ; and why omitted to be made before ; as thus : 5. The said C. D. was, at the time of his death, and his estate still is, justly and truly indebted to your petitioner in the sum of £80, for goods sold and delivered by your petitioner to the said C. D., in the course of your petitioner's trade as a wine merchant. Your petitioner on the —— day of ——, 186—, for the first time became aware of the death of the said C. D., and that his estate was under administration by this honourable Court. By reason of your petitioner's ignorance of the existence of this suit, no claim by or on the part of your petitioner in respect of his said debt was made under the said decree ; and your petitioner's said debt is omitted from the said Chief Clerk's certificate.

6. Your petitioner is now desirous to establish his said debt against the assets of the said C. D. in this suit.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays, that he may be allowed to rank as a simple contract creditor upon the estate of the said C. D. for the said sum of £80, and for interest thereon at the rate of £4 per cent. per annum from the date of the said decree ; and that, notwithstanding the said order on further consideration, the residue which will remain of the said £1000, after payment of the said costs, may be directed to be apportioned amongst your petitioner in respect of his said debt and interest, and the several creditors of the said C. D. certified by the said Chief Clerk's certificate, in proportion to the respective amounts so due to your petitioner, and the said other creditors ; and that the apportioned sums may be directed to be paid to your petitioner and the said other creditors accordingly.

Or that your lordship (Continue as in prayer of No. 55, ante, to the end; and add foot note: see ante, No. 55 a).

D., the testator [Or, intestate] in the decree in this cause dated the —— day of ——, 186—, named, for the sum of £80, and for interest thereon at the rate of £4 per cent. per annum from the date of the said decree.

2. That, notwithstanding the order on further consideration dated the —— day of ——, 186—, the residue which will remain of the sum of £1000 therein mentioned, after payment of the costs thereby directed to be taxed, may be directed to be apportioned amongst the applicant, in respect of his said debt and interest, and the several other creditors of the said C. D. whose debts are certified by the Chief Clerk's certificate dated the —— day of ——, 186—, in proportion to the respective amounts due to the applicant, and the said other creditors.

3. That the apportioned sums may be directed to be paid to the applicant, and the said other creditors accordingly.

F., of (residence and addition), to rank as a creditor upon the estate of the testator G. H. [or as may be], under the decree [Or, order] dated the —— day of ——, 186—, but which claim has been disallowed, may be ascertained at Chambers, or taxed by the Taxing Master; and that the said E. Title—and address to the L. C., or M. R.: see ante, No. 54.

The humble petition of the plaintiff [or as may be].

Showeth as follows:

Show that the fund in Court is available for investment; as thus:

1. A. B., the testator in the pleadings of this cause named, by his will, dated the —— day of ——, 186—, bequeathed to the defendants C. D. and E. F., the residue of his personal estate,

Pr. 1819, et seq.; and see post, Chap. XLV. A fund will not be invested in the purchase of freehold house property, however eligible it may be: Moore v. Walter, 11 W. R. 713, V. C. K. (s) See Dan. Pr. 1134. The petition must be supported by the affidavits of surveyors or other qualified persons, stating the size, value, rental, and outgoings of the estate, and any circumstances rendering the proposed purchase or security desirable. The contract must also be produced at the time of making the application. For form of affidavit, see post, No. 1219.

upon trust to convert the same into money, and to invest such money in their names in the purchase of freehold hereditaments, or on real securities, in England or Wales ; and to permit your petitioner to receive the rents and profits or other income of such investment, during his life ; with remainders over.

2. The testator died on the —— day of ——, 186—, without having revoked or altered his said will ; and probate of such will was on the —— day of ——, 186—, granted by Her Majesty's Court of Probate to the defendants C. D. and E. F., the executors therein named.

3. This suit was instituted for the administration of the estate of the said A. B. ; and by the decree made therein by your lordship [or as may be], dated the —— day of ——, 186—, the trusts of the said will were directed to be performed, and carried into execution ; and the usual accounts and inquiries as to the estate of the testator were directed to be taken and made ; and the clear residue of his personal estate was directed to be ascertained and certified.

4. Pursuant to the said decree, the Chief Clerk made his certificate dated the —— day of ——, 186—, and thereby certified that there was no debt of the said testator remaining unpaid ; and that the clear residue of his personal estate consisted, amongst other things, of the sum of £10,000 bank £3 per cent. annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant-General in trust in this cause, "The personal estate account."

5. By an order dated the —— day of ——, 186—, made by your lordship [or as may be], on the hearing of this cause on further consideration, the interest of the said £10,000 bank annuities was directed to be paid to your petitioner during his life, or until further order.

Show the investment proposed to be made ; as thus :

6. Your petitioner, on behalf of the parties interested under the testator's will in his residuary personal estate, lately entered into an agreement (conditional on the approval thereof by this honourable Court) with G. H., of, &c., dated the —— day of ——, 186—, for the purchase from the said G. H., at the sum of £6,000 [Or, for a loan to the said G. H. of the sum of £6,000, on the security of a mortgage, bearing interest at £— per cent. per annum], of certain freehold hereditaments belonging to the said G. H., situate at, &c., and comprising about —— acres : to which agreement your petitioner craves leave to refer.

7. The said proposed purchase [Or, loan] is a fit and proper investment of the sum of £6,000 in accordance with the trusts of the testator's will ; and your petitioner is desirous that the same should be approved by this honourable Court ; and that the said £6,000 should be raised out of the said £10,000 bank annuities.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays :

1. That the said agreement may be carried into effect.

2. That the usual inquiry may be directed, as to the title to the said hereditaments (t).
3. That in case such title shall be approved, a proper conveyance [Or, mortgage] of the said hereditaments may be directed to be settled.
4. That upon the due execution thereof by all proper parties, the said £6,000 may be raised out of the said £10,000 bank 3*l.* per cent. annuities, and paid to such person or persons as shall be certified to be entitled to receive the same.
5. That the costs of your petitioner, and all other proper parties, of this application, and consequent thereon, including the investigation of the title to the said hereditaments, (except such costs as shall be properly payable by the said G. H.,) may be taxed, and be raised and paid out of the said bank annuities.
6. That the rents and profits of the hereditaments so to be purchased [Or, the interest to accrue on the said investment on mortgage], and also the interest to accrue on the residue of the said bank annuities, for the time being, during the life of your petitioner, may be directed to be paid to him, or his legal personal representatives, until further order.
Or that your lordship (Continue as in prayer of No. 55, ante, to the end; and add foot note: see ante, No. 55*a*).

on the part of the defendants C. D. and E. F. [or as may be]:
1. That the conditional agreement dated the —— day of ——, 186—, entered into by the applicants with G. H., of, &c., for the purchase from him, at the sum of £6,000 [Or, for a loan to him of the sum of £6,000 on the security of a mortgage, bearing interest at £— per cent.], of certain hereditaments belonging to him, situate at, &c., may be approved on behalf of the parties interested under the will of A. B., the testator in the pleadings named, in his residuary personal estate; and be carried into effect.
2. That the usual inquiry may be directed as to the title to the said hereditaments.
3. That in case such title shall be approved, a proper conveyance [Or, mortgage] of the said hereditaments to the applicants, the trustees of the said will, may be settled.

4. That upon the due execution thereof by such parties as shall be certified to be proper, the applicants may be at liberty to raise the said £6,000, out of a fund of £10,000 bank 3*l*. per cent. annuities standing in their names, and forming part of the testator's residuary personal estate held by them upon the trusts of the testator's will; and to pay the said £6,000 to such person or persons as shall be certified to be entitled to receive the same.

5. That the costs of the applicants, and all other proper parties, of this application, and consequent thereon, including the investigation of the title to the said hereditaments, (except such costs as shall be properly payable by the said G. H.,) may be taxed; and that the applicants may be at liberty to raise such costs out of the said bank annuities, and retain their own costs, and pay the other costs to the parties entitled.

4. I have also, in pursuance of the said instructions, made a careful estimate and valuation of the estate so surveyed by me; and in so doing I have taken into consideration the tenure and situation of the said estate, the nature and quality of the land, and what would be a fair price for a purchaser to pay for the said estate as an investment, and in expectation of being able to obtain a similar or better price for the same upon a re-sale.

Inventory of personal estate at death (n).

1. We have, according to the best of our knowledge, remembrance, information, and belief, set forth in the first schedule hereunder written (n), a full, true, and particular account and inventory of the personal estate of or to which G. H., the testator in the decree [Or, order] dated the —— day of ——, 186—, made in this cause, named or referred to, and who died on the —— day of ——, 186—, was possessed or entitled at the time of his death—If the decree or order directs only an account of personal estate not specifically bequeathed, add : and not by him specifically bequeathed.

2. Save what is set forth in the said first schedule—If so : and what is by the said testator specifically bequeathed—the said testator was not, to the best of our knowledge, information, or belief, at the time of his death possessed of, or entitled to, any debt or sum of money due to him from us, or any or either of us, on any account whatsoever, nor to any leasehold, or other personal estate, goods, chattels, or effects, in possession, or reversion, absolutely, or contingently, or otherwise howsoever.

(u) ; and as to obtaining an inspection of such accounts, see ib. 1086. As to the apportionment of rents, dividends, and other periodical payments, under 11 Geo. II. c. 19, s. 15, and 4 & 5 Will. (n) The first schedule to the affidavit should show the state of the assets at the testator's death ; the second, at the time the affidavit is sworn ; and the account of personal estate, verified by the affidavit, should disclose all the receipts and payments in respect of the assets between those periods. Thus, where a testator leaves a sum of bank stock, which the executor afterwards sells, and invests the proceeds in three per cent. consols : the bank stock will appear in the first schedule ; the proceeds of the sale on the debit side of the account ; the cost of the consols on the credit side ; and the amount of the consols will form an item in the second schedule, as an asset outstanding or undisposed of : Dan. Pr. 1141. As to inventories and commissions of appraisement in the Court of Probate, see Williams' Exors. 1980 ; Dodd & Brooks, 557—563. 1258. Chief Clerk's certificate of the result of the account (q).

Proceed as in No. 1255 ante, to the end of par. 1.

2. The plaintiff [or as may be] has laid out sums to the amount of £330 17*s.* 5*d.*, in necessary repairs and lasting improvements on the hereditaments comprised in his said mortgage security. Interest has been computed on the said sums, from the respective times when the same were so laid out to the date of this certificate, and at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum, being the same rate of interest as the said mortgage carries, and such interest amounts to £11 16*s.* 2*d.* : to which being added the said £330 17*s.* 5*d.*, they amount together to £342 13*s.* 7*d.* The particulars of the sums so laid out, appear in the second part of the account marked A., verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff [or as may be] filed ——, 186—, and which account is to be filed with this certificate [Or if the account has been varied, explain in what respect].

The evidence produced, &c.

The said sum of £342 13*s.* 7*d.* being added to the said sum of £2,513 6*s.* 8*d.* due for principal and interest as aforesaid, they amount together to the sum of £2,856 0*s.* 3*d.*

3. The defendant A. B. has received rents and profits of the mortgaged hereditaments to the amount of £612 10*s.* 0*d.* ; and he has paid, or is entitled to be allowed, on account thereof sums to the amount of £36 3*s.* 9*d.*: leaving a balance due from him of £576 6*s.* 3*d.* on that account. The particulars of such receipts and payments appear in the third part of the said account marked A. [Explain any variations].

(q) See Dan. Pr. 896, 1154.

The evidence produced, &c.

The said £576 6*s.* 3*d.* being deducted from the said £2,856 0*s.* 3*d.*, leaves a balance due to the plaintiff [or as may be] of £2,279 14*s.* 0*d.*

There will also be due to the plaintiff [or as may be] on the —— day of ——, 186—: being the expiration of six calendar months from the date of this certificate: the further sum of £56 1*s.* 4*d.*, for half a year's interest at the rate aforesaid to the said —— day of ——, 186—, on the said £2,279 14*s.* 0*d.* [or as may be]: which sums make together the sum of £2335 15*s.* 4*d.*

The —— day of ——, 186—, between the hours of twelve and one of the clock in the afternoon, and the Chapel of the Rolls in the Rolls Yard, Chancery Lane, London, are appointed as the time and place at which the defendant C. D. is to pay the said sum of £2,335 15*s.* 4*d.* to the plaintiff A. B. [or as may be].

me, set out the particulars and results of my investigation aforesaid, and the accounts of all the dealings and transactions between the plaintiff and the defendant in the said business of cotton spinners and manufacturers directed to be taken by the decree in this cause, dated the —— day of ——, 186—.

3. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said book marked A. contains a true and accurate account of all the said dealings and transactions, and of the result of my said investigation of the said partnership books and accounts.

1267. Chief Clerk's certificate of the result of partnership accounts (i).

Title, and introduction: see ante, No. 503*a*.

I have taken an account of the partnership dealings and transactions between the plaintiff and the defendant, from the 12th March, 1855: having regard to the partnership articles, and the agreement of dissolution, in the pleadings mentioned.

On such account there was due from the said partnership to the plaintiff, on the 25th December, 1862, being the date of the dissolution of the said partnership, the sum of £830 in respect of his capital in the said partnership; and which sum of £830 is still due to the plaintiff, together with £105 for interest thereon at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum from the last mentioned day to the date of this certificate: making together £935.

On the same account there was due from the said partnership to the defendant on the said 25th December, 1862, the sum of £4,124 in respect of his capital in the said partnership; and the account of the defendant has been debited with £1,137 in respect of the trade stock of the partnership, and the horses, carts, trucks, and other plant and fixtures belonging to the said partnership, taken by him pursuant to the said agreement of dissolution: whereby the said £4,124 has been reduced to £2,987: which sum of £2,987 is still due to the defendant, together with £379 for interest thereon at the rate aforesaid from the said 25th December, 1862, to the date of this certificate: making together £3,366.

The defendant has, since the dissolution of the said partnership, received in respect of the assets of the said partnership, other than the said £1,137 with which his account has been debited as aforesaid, sums to the amount of £4,687; and he has paid, or is entitled to be allowed, on account thereof, sums to the amount of £3,139: leaving a balance due from him of £1,548 on that account.

The particulars of the above receipts and payments appear in the "Realisation Account," at page 2 of the account, marked A., verified by the affidavit of the defendant filed the 5th May, 1865; and which account is to be filed with this certificate: except, that in addition to the sums appearing in such account to have been realised by the defendant, he has been charged with £557 received by him of A. B., in respect of the assets of the said partnership since the said 5th May, 1865; and except that I have not allowed the defendant the sum of £1,000 retained by him on the 28th February, 1865, on account of his capital in the said partnership: reserving to the Court the application of the partnership assets realised by the defendant since the dissolution of the said partnership; and except that I have deducted from the item of £49 on the debit side of the said "Realisation Account" the sum of £22: whereby the said item is reduced to £27; and except that, in addition to the disbursements appearing in the said "Realisation Account," the defendant has been allowed £400 paid by him into the bank, with the privity of the Accountant-General, to the credit of this cause, on the 28th February, 1865, pursuant to the said decree.

Notwithstanding the foregoing certificate of the result of the said account, the question whether the account of the defendant ought to have been debited with the said £1,137 is, at the request of the plaintiff, reserved for the consideration of the Court.

The assets of the said partnership now remaining outstanding or undisposed of consist of the particulars set forth in the schedule hereto.

1314. Memorandum of direction to the conveyancing counsel, to advise on the conditions of sale (x).

Formal parts: see ante, No. 1212.

The Master of the Rolls [Or, Vice-Chancellor ——] has directed, that an abstract of title to the estates by the decree [Or, order] in this cause [Or, matter] dated the —— day of ——, 186—, directed to be sold: and which are comprised in the particulars to which I have put my initials: be laid before the conveyancing counsel in rotation [or as may be (y)], for his opinion thereon, with a view to such sale; and to advise what, if any, special conditions of sale are rendered necessary or proper by the state of the title; and that such special conditions, if any, be settled by such counsel.

1315. Ordinary conditions of sale (z).

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

(1). Advance at each bidding.

1. No person is to advance less than £—— at each bidding.

(x) See Dan. Pr. 1169. As to the necessity for laying the abstract before the conveyancing counsel, see ib.; 15 & 16 Vic. c. 86, s. 56. As to the root of title, and the title to be shown to different species of property, see Dart, 188—194; 1 Davidson's Conv. 459—466; 1 Prideaux's Conv. 93, et seq.; Sugd. V. & P. 364—381; and as to the preparation of the abstract, see Dart, 194—200, 768; 1 Davidson, 455; 1 Prideaux, 93, et seq.; Sugd. V. & P. 405—411, 817; and see Waters v. Waters, 1 W. N. 343: 15 W. R. 191, V. C. K.; and post, No. 1352, n. (m). The particulars of sale should, in strictness, be settled at Chambers before the abstract is sent to the conveyancing counsel; but this is often disregarded in practice: Dan. Pr. 1170, n. (t). An affidavit verifying the abstract is not required, preparatory to a sale by the Court: the rule is otherwise on a purchase by the Court, ib. n. (u). For forms of such affidavit on a purchase, see ante, Nos. 1220, 1221.

(y) As to obtaining the reference to the conveyancing counsel in rotation, or to one in particular of such counsel, see Dan. Pr. 1170; and ante, No. 1212, n. (h). For form of note of the rotation name, see ante, No. 1213.

(z) For this form, see Regul. 8 Aug. 1857, Sched. No. 7. As to the preparation and settlement of conditions of sale, see Dan. Pr. 1170—1171; and ante, No. 1313, n. (s). For collections of such conditions, see 1 Davidson's Conv. 537—645; 1 Prideaux's Conv. 14—42; Cox's Forms, 267—313; and see post, No. 1348.

(2). Reserved bidding (a).

2. The sale is subject to a reserved bidding for each lot: which has been fixed by the Judge to whose Court this cause is attached.

(3). Bidding paper (b).

3. Each purchaser is at the time of sale to subscribe his name and address to his bidding, in the bidding paper; and the abstract of title, and all written notices, and communications, and summonses, are to be deemed duly delivered to and served upon the purchaser, by being left for him at such address: unless or until he is represented by a solicitor.

(4). Deposit (c).

4. Each purchaser is, at the time of sale, to pay a deposit of £— per cent. on the amount of his purchase money to A. B., the person appointed by the said Judge to receive the same.

(5). Certifying result of sale (d).

5. The Chief Clerk of the said Judge will after the sale proceed to certify the result; and ——, the —— day of ——, 186—, at —— of the clock in the ——noon, is appointed as the time at which the purchasers may, if they think fit, attend, by their solicitors, at the Chambers of the said Judge in the Rolls Yard, Chancery Lane [or as may be: see ante, No. 1070], in the county of Middlesex, to settle such certificate. The certificate will then be settled; and will in due course be signed and filed, and become binding, without further notice or expense to the purchasers.

(6). Time for delivery of the abstract (e);

and objections and requisitions (f).

6. The vendor is, within —— days after such certificate has become binding, to deliver to each purchaser, or his solicitor, an abstract of the title to the lot or lots purchased by him, subject to the stipulations contained in these conditions. And each purchaser is, within —— days after the actual delivery of the abstract, to deliver at the office of Mr. A. B., solicitor, at C., in the county of D., a statement in writing of his objections and requisitions (if any) to or on the title as deduced by such abstract; and upon the expiration of such last-mentioned time—and in this respect time is to be deemed of the essence of the contract—the title is to be considered as approved of and accepted by such purchaser, subject only to such objections and requisitions, if any.

(a) Where the property is to be sold without reserve, this condition is varied accordingly: Dan. Pr. 1170, n. (a). As to reserved biddings, see ib. 1172; and post, Nos. 1320, 1321.

(b) As to the bidding paper, see Dan. Pr. 1175, 1176; and post, Nos. 1328, 1337.

(c) This is to be inserted only when a deposit is directed: in which case, the person appointed to receive the deposit must give security: see post, Nos. 1323—1325.

(d) See Dan. Pr. 1176; and post. Nos. 1330, 1339.

(e) See 15 & 16 Vic. c. 86, s. 56; Dan. Pr. 1170, 1178; and post, No. 1352. As to when a second copy of the abstract, or a portion of it, will be allowed on taxation, see Rumsey v. Rumsey, 21 Beav. 40.

(f) See Dan. Pr. 1179—1182.

7. Each purchaser is, in addition to the amount of his bidding at the sale, to pay the value of all timber and timber like trees, tellers, and pollards, if any, on the lot purchased by him, down to 1*s.* per stick inclusive: the amount thereof to be ascertained by a valuation to be made in manner following; that is to say:—each party (vendor and purchaser), or their respective solicitors, is, within —— days after the Chief Clerk's certificate has become binding, to appoint by writing one valuer, and give notice in writing to the other party of such appointment; and the valuers so appointed are to make such valuation; but before they commence their duty, they are to appoint an umpire by writing; and the decision of such valuers if they agree, or of such umpire if they disagree, is to be final; and in case the purchaser shall neglect or refuse to appoint a valuer, and give notice thereof, in the manner and within the time above specified, the valuation is to be made by the valuer appointed by the vendor alone, and his valuation is to be final. (7). Ascertaining value of timber (g).

8. Each purchaser is, under an order for that purpose to be obtained by him—or, in case of his neglect, by the vendors at the costs of the purchaser—upon application at the Chambers of the said Judge, to pay the amount of his purchase money (after deducting the amount paid as a deposit), together with the amount of the valuation under the 7th condition, if any (i), into the Bank of England, with the privity of the Accountant-General of this Court, to the credit of this cause [or as may be (k)], on or before the —— day of ——, 186—; and if the same is not so paid, then the purchaser is to pay interest on his purchase money, including the amount of such valuation (i), at the rate of £— per cent. per annum, from the —— day of ——, 186—, to the day on which the same is actually paid: deducting property tax (l). CONDITIONS OF SALE.

(1). Reserved bidding.

1. The sale is subject to a reserved bidding: which has been fixed by the Judge to whose Court the cause is attached.

(2). Service on purchaser.

2. The abstract of title, and all written notices, communications, and summonses, are to be deemed duly delivered to, and served upon the purchaser, by being left for him at the address mentioned in the tender: unless, and until, he is represented by a solicitor.

(3). Deposit.

3. The purchaser is, within two days after the acceptance of his tender, to pay a deposit of £10 per cent. on the amount of his purchase money to the London and Westminster Bank, Bloomsbury Branch, to the credit of F. J. D., of &c., and E. W., of &c., as appointed by the Judge.

(4). Certifying result of sale.

4. The Chief Clerk of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart, the Vacation Judge, acting for the Master of the Rolls, will, after the sale, proceed to certify the result; and ——, the —— day of ——, 186—, at twelve o'clock at noon, is appointed as the time at which the bidders may, if they think fit, attend by their solicitors at the Chambers of the said Judge, situate at, &c., to settle such certificate. The certificate of sale (if any) will then be settled, and will, in due course, be signed and filed, and become binding, without further notice or expense to the purchaser.

(5). Book debts: how to be taken.

5. The book debts due to the late partnership on the —— day of ——, 186—, are to be taken by the purchaser at a sum fixed by the Judge; and which may be ascertained upon application to any of the before named solicitors. The book debts accrued due to the said partnership since the said —— day of ——, 186—, shall be taken to by the purchaser, and the amount to be paid by him in respect thereof shall be ascertained by the said Judge in Chambers, or as he shall direct; and in ascertaining such amount, regard will be had to any of the last-mentioned debts which may have been got in since that day. The purchaser shall also have credit for the value at which the Chief Clerk of the said Judge has estimated any of the debts due on the said —— day of ——, 186—, which may have been got in before the completion of the purchase.

(6). Ascertaining value of fixtures, &c.

6. The value of the fixtures, wines, spirits, &c., mentioned in the particulars: which are to be taken at a valuation: shall be ascertained as follows:—Each party (the vendors acting by Messrs. S. & B. their solicitors, and the purchaser by his solicitor), is, within ten days after the Chief Clerk's certificate has become binding, to appoint (Continue as in par. 7 of No. 1315, ante, to the end of that par.; and conclude thus:) In case the said valuers cannot agree upon an umpire, an umpire is to be appointed by the Master of the Rolls, or the said vacation Judge, in Chambers.

7. The vendors are, within ten days after the certificate has become binding, to deliver to the purchaser, or his solicitor, an abstract of the title to the said premises purchased by him: subject to the stipulations contained in these conditions. The purchaser is, within twenty-one days after the actual delivery of the abstract, to deliver at the office of Messrs. S. & B., at &c., a statement in writing of his objections and requisitions (if any) to or on the title as deduced by such abstract; and upon the expiration of such last-mentioned time, the title is to be considered as approved of and accepted by the purchaser, subject only to such objections and requisitions (if any); and a similar statement is to be delivered, within seven days after the delivery of answers to any previous statement: the title being considered as approved of and accepted, except as appears by such similar statement; and time is to be deemed of the essence of this condition, as well in equity as at law; and, for the purpose of any objection or requisition, an abstract shall be deemed to be perfect if it supply the information suggesting the same, although otherwise defective. And if the purchaser shall insist on any objection or requisition which the vendors shall consider themselves unable, or on the ground of expense, or for any other reason which the Judge shall consider sufficient, shall decline to remove or comply with, the vendors, with the sanction of the Judge, shall, notwithstanding any intermediate negociation, and although they may have insisted that the objections and requisitions are untenable, be at liberty, by notice in writing, signed by their solicitors, to rescind the contract, upon such terms in all respects as the Judge shall direct.

(7). Time for delivery of the abstract; and objections and requisitions. Rescission of the contract of sale.

8. The title shall commence with indentures dated, &c.

(8). Root of title.

9. The purchaser shall not, notwithstanding any recital, reference, notice, or covenant for production of or to prior title, be at liberty to investigate or require any explanation, or make any requisition or objection as to any title, or evidence of title, or any other matter whatsoever, prior to the said commencement, or appearing by such recital, reference, notice, or covenant; and the benefit of this condition shall not be waived or affected by the vendor furnishing an abstract of earlier title, or replying to any requisition of, or giving any information to, the purchaser, or by reason of anything being specifically provided for by these conditions. And every abstracted deed or document of title, dated more than twenty years prior to the day of sale, shall be accepted as sufficient evidence of the descriptions and characters of parties, facts, matters, and conclusions of law recited, stated, implied or assumed therein. And all facts or matters admitted or proved in the above-mentioned suit of J. v. H., or certified by the Chief Clerk of the Judge to whose Court that suit is attached, shall be deemed thereby conclusively evidenced.

(9). Earlier title not to be required. Conclusive evidence.

10. The property is believed, and shall be taken, to be correctly described, and is sold subject to all easements (if any) subsisting thereon; and if any error, misstatement, or omission in the particulars be discovered, the same shall not annul the sale, nor entitle the purchaser to be discharged from his purchase, but a compensation is to be made to, or by, the purchaser, as the case may be, and the amount of such compensation is to be settled at Chambers by the Judge.

(10). Easements.

Compensation for errors, &c.

(11). Identity of parcels, &c.

11. The purchaser shall admit the identity of the property purchased by him with that comprised in the muniments offered by the vendors as the title to such property, upon the evidence afforded by a comparison of the descriptions in the particulars and muniments, and of a declaration to be made (if required), at the purchaser's expense, that the property sold is held under the abstracted title; and the purchaser shall not make any objection or requisition founded upon any variance between the present measurements and the quantities stated in the abstracted muniments; and the purchaser shall be deemed to buy with full notice of the state of the property as respects repairs, insurance, party walls, and all other matters.

(12). Expenses to be brne by purchaser.

12. The purchaser shall not require from any conveying party any other covenant than a covenant that such party has not incumbered, or require for any purpose the concurrence of any person in respect of any beneficial interest bound by the decree or order for sale, or require any such decree or order to be enrolled.

Covenants, &c.

(13). Title deeds.

13. The purchaser shall be entitled, on the completion of his purchase, to the custody of such of the deeds and muniments of title in the possession of the vendors as relate exclusively to the property sold; and as to such deeds and muniments of title in the possession of the vendors as relate to the property sold, and also any other property or matter, the same will be retained by the vendors: who will enter into, or procure to be entered into, by some or one of the parties beneficially interested, the usual qualified and defeasible covenant of a trustee with a purchaser for producing and furnishing copies: the deed of covenant to be prepared and perfected by and at the expense of the purchaser, including the expense of perusal and execution for and by the covenantor, and all other necessary parties, if any.

14. The purchaser is, under an order for that purpose to be obtained by him, or, in case of his neglect, by the vendors at the costs of the purchaser, upon application at the Chambers of the Judge, to pay the remainder of his purchase money into the Bank of England, with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the credit of the cause J. v. H., or otherwise as in such order may be provided, within fourteen days, exclusive of vacations, after the date of the valuations to be made as mentioned in the 6th condition; and if the same is not so paid, then the purchaser is to pay interest on the remainder of his purchase money, at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum, from the date of such valuation, to the day on which the same is actually paid: deducting property tax. Upon payment of the purchase money in manner aforesaid, the purchaser is to be entitled to possession as from the date of such valuation, down to which time all outgoings are to be paid by the vendors; and for the purpose of this condition, such outgoings, if the circumstances so require, shall be apportioned. And the purchaser is to be considered as entitled to the said business, and subject to the engagements thereof, as from the date of the valuation provided for by the 6th condition; and the amount coming, or being due, to, or from, him in respect thereof as from that day is to be ascertained. In so ascertaining the same, such allowance as may be deemed proper in respect of the management thereof, as from the date of such valuation, is to be made; and the said Judge shall determine any differences which may arise in reference to this condition, including the determination of, by, and to whom, and when and how, any sum is to be payable thereunder.

And first I the said C. D. for myself say, as follows:

1. I am the person proposed to be appointed the guardian of the above named infant A. B. [Or, A. B., the infant named in the summons issued from the Chambers of the Master of the Rolls —Or, Vice-Chancellor ——, in this matter on the —— day of ——, 186—, or as may be].

(a) See Dan. Pr. 1215. Upon the application for the appointment of a guardian, evidence must be produced to show: (1) the age of the infant; (2) the nature and amount of his fortune; and (3) what relations he has: ib.; Regul. 8 Aug. 1857, r. 19; Bloxam, 43. The fitness of the proposed guardian to be appointed must also be proved by affidavit; and his willingness to act should be shown by production of his written consent: Dan. Pr. 1215. The nature of the other evidence to be adduced in support of the application will depend on the circumstances of the particular case. Thus, it may be necessary to show the marriage of the infant's parents; or the happening of events which have led to the infant becoming entitled to the property sought to be affected by the order, or to the interposition of the Court being required.

(2) A copyhold house at G., aforesaid, let to N. O. as yearly tenant, at £50 a year.

(3) £2000 bank 3*l.* per cent. annuities, standing in the names of R. S. and T. W., the trustees of the will of the said E. F.

(4) £60 cash in the hands of the said R. S. and T. W., arisen from dividends on the said bank annuities.

The said A. B. is also entitled, under the said will, in remainder expectant on the death of N. F., the widow of the said E. F., to a life interest in £7000 New 3*l.* per cent. annuities, also standing in the names of the said R. S. and T. W., the trustees thereof.

4. Show what relations the infant has (b); as thus: The only relations of the said A. B. now living are:—(1) This deponent, his maternal uncle; (2) S. H., wife of T. H., of (residence and addition), the half-sister of the said A. B.; and (3) R. D. V., the half-brother of the said A. B.: who is a captain in Her Majesty's army, and is now stationed with his regiment at Bombay, in the East Indies.

5. Show where the infant is now residing, and under whose care; as thus: The said A. B. was, at the time of the death of his father C. B., which happened on the ——, 186—, and is now residing, as a scholar, at Marlborough College, Wiltshire.

6. State willingness to act as guardian; as thus: I am willing to act as the guardian of the person and estate [or as may be] of the said A. B., during his minority, in case this honourable Court shall think fit to appoint me to that office.

7. Show means of knowledge.

And I the said W. R. for myself say, as follows:

Sworn (&c.: see ante, No. 16).

(b) What "relations" are to be included in the statement is a matter of discretion in each case. As a general rule, it should at least be shown what persons there are of or within the same degree of relationship as the proposed guardian; and if the mother is proposed as a guardian, the evidence should extend to uncles and aunts on the father's and mother's sides. The summons should be served upon such relations: unless their acquiescence in the appointment of the proposed guardian is otherwise proved, or service on them is dispensed with: Bloxam, 43; Dan. Pr. 1215. As to what relations are preferred in the selection of a guardian, see Macpherson, 112.

1403. Consent of guardian to act (c).

In Chancery.

B., and readily, and cheerfully, obey, and execute his lawful and reasonable commands; and will not, at any time during the continuance of the said term, absent himself from the service of the said A. B. without first obtaining his consent thereto; but will, during the said term, demean himself in all things towards the said A. B. and his family as a good and faithful apprentice. (h) See ante, No. 1435.

(i) Describethe document, shortly; and, if an affidavit, add also the deponent's name.

1468. Practice of the Record and Writ Clerks' Office, as to copies supplied therefrom (j).

(1) How made.

Office copies are written on foolscap paper, bookwise, and contain two folios on each side. An office copy will not be made of a portion only of a record: except where, under 14 & 15 Vic. c. 99, s. 14, an extract is required to be given in evidence at law (k).

(2) Who must or may take office copies of records.

An office copy of any record may, after decree, be taken by any person: whether a party to the record or not; but before the cause has been heard, the making and delivering out of office copies of records are subject to the restrictions hereinafter mentioned (l).

(3) Office copies of bills.

Office copies of bills may be taken by any party to the cause. It is not, however, required that a defendant shall take an office copy of the bill before filing his answer: unless it be an answer to a bill filed before the 2nd November, 1852 (m). Even before decree the Clerks of Records and Writs exercise, in certain cases, a discretion in favour of persons applying for office copies of bills, though not parties to the cause, upon consideration of the circumstances of the particular case. Thus, where the bill has been registered as a lis pendens: or the suit is on behalf of creditors, and the application is made by a creditor: an office copy has been permitted to be taken before decree.

(4) Office copies of interrogatories.

Copies of interrogatories for service are made by the plaintiff's solicitor, but must be examined with the original, and the number of folios counted, by the Clerks of Records and Writs: who, if the copies are duly stamped and properly written, will mark them as office copies. The copy for service on any defendant should only contain the interrogatories which he is required to answer. The copies are usually written on brief paper (n).

(5) Office copies of answers.

As to furnishing the plaintiff with an official and certified printed copy of a defendant's answer, see post, No. 1487. Office copies of schedules to answers of accounts or documents continue to be made in the Record and Writ Clerks' Office (o).

(j) See Braithwaite's Pr. 487.

(k) Ibid. 489; Dan. Pr. 808. The office copy is counted and charged for at 4*d.* per folio, after the rate of seventy-two words per folio; or, to a pauper, one penny half-penny for a like folio: see post, No. 1481. A copy of an affidavit made by a solicitor or party will, at his request, be marked as an office copy: after the examination thereof by the officer with the original, and on the proper fee fund stamps, at the rate above mentioned, being impressed on, or affixed to, the copy: Dan. Pr. 832; Braithwaite's Pr. 488.

(l) See Braithwaite's Pr. 489.

(m) Ibid. As to office copies of new engrossments of bills filed before 2 Nov., 1852, see ib. 490.

(n) See Ord. XI. 4; Dan. Pr. 440.

(o) Ord. 6 March, 1860, r. 16; Dan. Pr. 700.

The party whose pleading is excepted to takes an office copy of the exceptions (p). (6) Office copies of exceptions.

An office copy of a demurrer, or plea, should be taken by the plaintiff (q). (7) Office copies of demurrers and pleas.

See post, No. 1492. (8) Office copies of affidavits and depositions required to be printed.

The party filing an affidavit should in all cases take an office copy of it—except in the case of an affidavit filed by a claimant coming in pursuant to advertisement under a decree: in which case, the office copy is to be taken by the party prosecuting the cause or matter: unless the Judge otherwise directs (r). It seems the exception extends, in practice, to office copies of further affidavits filed in support of a disputed claim, and to affidavits filed in opposition (s). Office copies of affidavits will be made for any person, whether a party to the cause or matter or not, and at any time (t). (9) Office copies of affidavits not required to be printed.

Any party to the suit or proceeding may, on payment of the proper fee (u), have a copy of the whole, or any portion, of the examinations or depositions of parties or witnesses taken by or before a Chief Clerk, when filed at the Record and Writ Clerks' office (v). (10) Office copies of examinations and depositions not required to be printed.

No office copy of the duplicate of an originating summons need (11) Office copies of summonses.

(t) Ibid. 494. Where a mistake is discovered in an affidavit immediately after it has been sworn and left to be filed, but before it has been actually entered as filed: if an office copy of such affidavit has been marked, it may, upon the affidavit being resworn, be altered, without the same being restamped: on additional stamps of an amount sufficient to cover the increased length, if any, being affixed. The office copy must be re-examined in such case. An affidavit cannot, however, be resworn after it is filed. See ib. 494, 495.

be taken by any party thereto. An office copy may, however, be obtained by any party to the summons, at any time ; and, after the summons has been heard, by any other person (x).

(12) Office copies of special cases.

The plaintiff must take an office copy of a special case ; but the defendants need not do so (y). After the special case has been heard, any person may have a copy thereof (z).

(13) Commissions of partition (a).

An office copy of the certificate or return to a commission of partition, and of the plans annexed thereto, may be taken by any party interested in the partition ; but a copy of the commission will be included in the office copy (b).

(14) Brief and close copies (c).

The Clerks of Records and Writs may, in cases requiring extraordinary despatch, permit the stationers employed in their office to make close or brief copies, as well as office copies ; subject to the following provisions :—

I. The Clerks of Records and Writs are to provide :

(1) That such permission is not to be given to any stationer or copyist who is or may be a salaried clerk in the office.

(2) That such permission is not to be given in any case in which the making and delivering of a close or brief copy would in any manner delay the making or due delivery of the office copy.

II. No officer, or clerk in the office, is to become entitled to, or take, demand, or receive, any fee, gift, gratuity, emolument or advantage arising out of, or in any way to be derived from, the permission to make, or the making or delivery of, any such close or office (brief) copy (d). Where a solicitor loses an office copy previously taken by him, a close or brief copy may be made for him (e).

(15) Copies of documents left in the office for safe custody (f).

The order directing the deposit of documents with the Clerk of Records and Writs for safe custody ordinarily provides, that the parties, their solicitors and agents, shall be at liberty to take (z) See Braithwaite's Pr. 490.

(a) See ibid. 238, 492, 493 ; Dan. Pr. 1052.

(b) The copy is charged for at the rate of 4*d.* per folio : post, No. 1481. Copies of plans are charged for only to the extent of the actual payment to the draughtsman. The office copy of the certificate is signed and stamped, in like manner as other office copies. Copies of plans are not usually bound up with the office copy, but delivered out separately. Each copy of a plan is, however, identified with the office copy by a memorandum thereon ; and the office seal is impressed thereto.

(c) See Braithwaite's Pr. 496.

(d) Ibid. ; Regulation of the Office, 10 Mar. 1845. This Regulation does not appear to be abrogated by Cons. Ord. : see Prel. Ord. 2.

copies thereof, or extracts therefrom, as they may be advised. Such copies or extracts may be made by the persons attending to inspect; but, if so desired, the office will make the same at the rate of 4*d.* per folio. Copies so made by the office are not usually in the form of, or regarded as, office copies; but if office copies are required, they will be made and marked, in like manner as ordinary office copies.

1469. Memorandum to be used on inspecting an affidavit (g).

Solicitor's name.	Title of suit [Or, matter].	Date of inspection.

(g) See Braithwaite's Pr. 510. Any person, whether a party to the cause or matter or not, may inspect an affidavit at any time after it is filed. The person applying to inspect must first ascertain, by searching in the "Index of Affidavits," the date on which the affidavit was filed. The officer will then procure the original affidavit for inspection. A fee of sixpence is payable for every application to inspect an affidavit: post, No. 1485 (5); but no fee is payable if the inspection is merely for the purpose of comparing an office copy with the original, or of bespeaking an office copy at the time of inspection. The Indexes to affidavits, now in the custody of the Clerks of Records and Writs, extend as far back as the year 1629, but not uninterruptedly. The original affidavits now in their custody extend in date to the year 1615; but interruptedly prior to the year 1770. From Easter Term, 1615, to Hilary Term, 1746, there is a register or copy of every affidavit filed; but with interruptions as to some of the earlier dates. The Indexes to affidavits, of any date, are open to inspection, free of charge. The person requiring the information makes the search himself. Affidavits filed in causes are indexed under the title of the cause, by the letter of the first plaintiff's surname. Affidavits filed in suits commenced by administration summons are indexed under the first letter of the surname of the person whose estate is to be administered. Affidavits filed in "matters" are now indexed under the letter of the alphabet best answering to the title of the particular matter; but previously to the year 1852, such affidavits were entered promiscuously as to the title of the matter; and will be found entered according to the date of filing only, after the letter Z, in the Indexes to affidavits; and from Michaelmas Term, 1852, to the 31st December, 1855, affidavits in matters were entered in a separate book, but still promiscuously as to the title of the matter; and consecutive only with respect to the date of filing. Since 1855, all affidavits intituled in matters are indexed under the title of the particular matter: as well as in consecutive order as to the date of filing. See Braithwaite's Pr. 510, 511.

1470. Memorandum to be used on searching for, and inspecting, a record (h).

In Chancery.

(Short title.)

For searching for a record [Or, For searching for, and inspecting a record].

Cause began in [Or, about] the year ——.

Dated this —— day of ——, 186—.

(Name, &c., of solicitor or party paying the fee: see ante, No. 5, or 9.)

(h) A fee of two shillings is payable, in a fee fund stamp affixed to the memorandum, upon every application to search for a record, and for searching: see post, No. 1485 (5). No other fee is payable, notwithstanding the search may extend over many years. A fee of five shillings is payable, in like manner, upon every application to inspect a record, and for inspecting the same: ib. In giving instructions to search for a record, it is essential either that the names of the first named plaintiff and defendant in the cause should be stated, and the date when the suit was instituted; or, if such date is not precisely known, then the date of any decree or order made in the cause. The Indexes to causes, commonly called "Bill books," for the last preceding ten years are open to public inspection, free of charge. To search for a suit instituted more than ten years since, instructions in the above form must be given; and in such cases the search is made by the officer. Ordinarily, the result of the search will be made known to the parties on the day following that on which the instructions are given. The party may, however, himself make the search at once, if he pleases. The Indexes to causes at present in the office extend as far back as the year 1676; but the records now in the custody of the Clerks of Records and Writs are not supposed to reach farther back than the year 1801. Records filed previously to that year are deposited in the Public Record Office. As a rule, a record cannot be inspected by a person not a party to the record until after a decree has been made in the cause; but after decree any person may inspect a record, upon payment of the proper fee. Affidavits may, however, be inspected by any person at any time after they are filed. And with respect to other records, the Clerks of Records and Writs will in all cases exercise a discretion; and allow a person not a party to the cause to inspect, or take a copy of, a record, before decree. A defendant may inspect a co-defendant's answer, but not until after he has filed his own answer; or, in cases where no answer is required from him, after his time for answering voluntarily has expired. A defendant inspecting a co-defendant's answer must pay the usual fee payable on inspecting a record. If, however, he takes an office copy of the answer, the fee for inspection will be remitted. Before decree, the plaintiff may inspect the bill or answers, and a defendant may inspect the bill, or his own answer, without payment of any fee. After the suit is wound up, parties to the suit desiring to inspect the records therein must pay the like fees for inspection as are payable by persons not parties. An inspection of a record may be continued on subsequent days without payment of a further fee; but, unless otherwise requested by the person inspecting, the record will, after the first inspection, be at once returned to its place; and, in such case, if a further inspection be desired, the fees payable for searching and inspection must be again paid. In no case, however, will a record be allowed to remain out of its place for an indefinite period. Persons inspecting records may note down therefrom any dates or sums, or names of parties; but no continuous copying is allowed. Braithwaite's Pr. 500, 501.

1471. Examining copies for service (i).

Copies of bills to be served on formal parties may be examined with the original records (k). It is not, however, required in practice that the affidavit of service should do more than prove that the copies served were true copies (l).

1472. Attendances in the Court or its offices, or elsewhere, with documents deposited (m).

For the Forms applicable to these cases, see ante, Nos. 725—729.

1473. Memorandum to be used on bespeaking an attendance on an invalid (n).

In Chancery.

(Short title, and reference to the record.)

For the attendance of the Clerk of Records and Writs at ——, on ——, the —— day of ——, 186—, at —— of the clock in the ——noon, to swear A. B. to an affidavit: he being an invalid. Dated this —— day of ——, 186—.

(Name, &c., of solicitor or party bespeaking the attendance: see ante, No. 5, or 9.)

(i) See Braithwaite's Pr. 31.

(k) No fee is payable on such examination.

(l) See Braithwaite's Pr. 31. As to service on formal defendants, see Dan. Pr. 390; and for form of affidavit of service, see ante, No. 238.

(m) See notes to Nos. 725—729, ante. It is desirable that timely notice should be given of the required attendance: so that the records or documents may be searched for, and delay in their production prevented. As to the fees payable, see post, No. 1485 (5). The payment of the fee may be deferred till the cause or matter is about to come on. The officer will not attend until the fee is paid. On attending with exhibits in Court, or at Chambers, or before an examiner, if the documents are so numerous or heavy as to require the assistance of a porter, the solicitor or party requiring the attendance is expected to provide such assistance. Attendances in Court with records are made only at the request of the Judge.

(n) See Dan. Pr. 687. Upon every application to swear an invalid, including the attendance, a fee of 10*s.*, besides necessary expenses, is payable: see post, No. 1485 (5). The necessary expenses comprise 1*s.* per mile for travelling expenses. The office fee is paid in fee fund stamps, affixed to the memorandum. The officer's expenses are paid to him in money: Braithwaite's Pr. 515. The Clerks of Records and Writs are not empowered to attend upon an invalid for the purpose of taking an affidavit or answer at any place distant more than ten miles from Lincoln's Inn Hall: ib.; and it is now more usual to procure the attendance of a London Commissioner: Dan. Pr. 687.

Section II.—Obtaining Copies of Documents from Parties or Solicitors.

1474. Copies to be made by parties or solicitors (o).

3. Copies of pleadings and other proceedings in the Court, and of the documents relating thereto: except such copies as are mentioned in Ord. XXXVI. r. 1 (p): instead of being made and delivered by the officers of the Court at the office in which they are filed or left, are to be made, delivered, charged, and paid for, according to the following rules:—

4. The party or his solicitor requiring any copy, save as excepted in the preceding rule, shall make a written application to the party by whom the copy ought to be delivered, or his solicitor, with an undertaking to pay the proper charges (q).

5. Upon such requisition being made, with such undertaking as aforesaid, copies of such pleadings, proceedings, or documents, shall be made by the party or his solicitor filing or leaving the same, or who under the 1st rule (p) may have taken office copies thereof.

6. The copies shall be ready to be delivered at the expiration of forty-eight hours after delivery of such request and undertaking, or within such other time as the Court may in any case direct; and shall be delivered accordingly on demand, upon payment of the proper charges.

7. Copies of bills of costs shall be made side for side: so as to correspond with the bills of costs left in the office.

8. The folios of all copies shall be numbered consecutively in the margin thereof; and the name and address of the party or solicitor by whom the same are made shall be indorsed thereon (r): in like manner as upon the proceedings in the Court; and such party or solicitor shall be answerable for every such copy being a true copy of the original, or of an office copy of the original pleading, proceeding, or document of which it purports to be a copy: as the case may be.

9. In cases of ex parte applications for injunctions, or writs of ne exeat regno, the party making such application shall deliver copies of the affidavits upon which it is granted, upon payment of the proper charges, immediately upon the receipt of such written request and undertaking as aforesaid, or within such time as may be specified in such request, or may have been directed by the Court.

10. Any party or solicitor who has taken any office copy mentioned in the 1st rule (p), shall produce the same in Court,

(o) Ord. XXXVI. 3—12.

(p) Ante, No. 1465.

(q) For form of request and undertaking, see post, No. 1476. As to the proper charges, see post, No. 1481.

(r) For a form, see ante, No. 5, or 9.

or at the Judge's chambers, when required for the purpose of the proceedings to which the same relates.

11. All copies to be delivered by parties or their solicitors shall be written on paper of a convenient size, with a sufficient margin, and in a neat and legible manner: similar to that which is usually adopted by law stationers; and unless such copies are so written, the parties or solicitors delivering them shall not be entitled to be paid for the same.

12. Where any party or solicitor who is required to deliver any such copy either refuses to deliver the same, or does not deliver the same within the period of forty-eight hours allowed by the 6th rule of this Order, the person making such application shall be at liberty to procure a copy from the office in which the original shall have been filed: in the same way as if no such application had been made to the party or solicitor; and in such case, no costs shall be due or payable to the party or solicitor so making default, in respect of the copy so applied for.

13. The Taxing Master shall not allow any costs in respect of any copy so taken as aforesaid, unless the same shall appear to him to have been requisite, and to have been made with due care, both as regards the contents and the writing thereof.

1475. Copies of bills (s).

The defendant is entitled, after appearance, to demand from the plaintiff any number of printed copies, not exceeding ten, of the plaintiff's bill, on payment for the same at the rate of one halfpenny per folio of seventy-two words.

1476. Request to be furnished with copies, and undertaking to pay the charges (t).

Petition of appeal (e).

Title—and address to the L. C. (f): see ante, No. 54.

The humble petition and appeal of the above named plaintiff [or as may be].

Showeth as follows.

1. Recite the decree or order appealed from (g); as thus: By a decree [Or, an order] dated the —— day of ——, 186—, made by your lordship [Or, by his lordship the Master of the Rolls—Or, jurisdiction, powers, and authorities of the Court of Appeal may be exercised either by both of the Judges appointed under the 14 & 15 Vic. c. 83, when sitting together: or by either of them, when sitting separately: or by the Lord Chancellor, when sitting with those Judges, or either of them; but that no decree made on the hearing of a cause, or on further consideration, shall be re-heard before the said Judges, when sitting separately; and that the Lord Chancellor shall and may, while sitting alone, have and exercise the like jurisdiction, powers, and authorities, as might have been exercised by him if this Act had not been passed. By the second section, the Lord Chancellor is from time to time to fix the times at which the Judges of the Court of Appeal, or either of them, shall sit with the Lord Chancellor, and at which they shall sit together or separately; and also what appeals, motions, petitions, and other matters shall be heard and determined by the full Court, and by the said Judges sitting together or separately, and by the Lord Chancellor sitting alone, or with either of the said Judges. By the third section, this Act, and the 14 & 15 Vic. c. 83, are to be read together as one Act. An appeal from a decree made on motion may now be heard by one Lord Justice: Baxendale v. McMurray, 2 W. N. 243, L. JJ.

(e) A fee of 20*s.* higher scale, and 5*s.* lower scale, is payable, in a fee fund stamp, impressed on or affixed to the first page of the petition: see ante, No. 1485 (7. 8). As to obtaining a copy of the petition, see Dan. Pr. 1365. For form of request for a copy, and undertaking to pay for same, see ante, No. 1476. As to when an appeal may be made by petition of appeal, or appeal petition, and when by motion, see Dan. Pr. 1355, 1356, 1357, 1452; Ord. XXXI. 8. The practice as to the mode of appealing from orders made on summons does not appear to be distinctly settled. It would seem, however, that an order made upon the hearing, or on the further consideration, of a suit commenced by administration summons, should be appealed by petition of appeal. In Re Teil, Teil v. Barlow, L. JJ., 22 July, 1862, Reg. Lib. B. 1912; and Re Chick, Chick v. Hope, L. JJ., 21 March, 1865, Reg. Lib. A. 720 where the orders had been made in Court: the above course was pursued; and cases likely to give rise to an appeal should always be adjourned to the Court and disposed of there. All other orders made on summons are appealed by motion: see post, No. 1539. Matters dealt with upon petition adjourned to Chambers are appealed by an appeal petition: see post, No. 1532. As to applications to discharge or vary orders made on motion or petition of course or to discharge or vary, for irregularity, an order made on special petition see Dan. Pr. 1357, 1461; Ord. VI. 5, 10; and to discharge or vary orders made by one Judge for another during vacation, see Dan. Pr. 1357; Ord. VI. 11. A petition of appeal by some of several plaintiffs against the other was allowed: the appellants having filed a supplemental bill: Jopp v. Wood, 2 De G. J. & S. 323; and see Dan. Pr. 227.

(f) As to the address, see Dan. Pr. 1360.

That answers to the said bill were put in by your petitioner, and by others of the defendants thereto; and evidence by affidavit and oral depositions was taken in the said cause; and the same having come on for hearing, upon motion for a decree, before the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, his honour made a decree therein, dated the 22nd day of July, 1862; and thereby it was declared that, &c.; and it was ordered that, &c.

That the said decree was drawn up, passed, and entered.

That a petition of rehearing, by way of appeal, was presented by the defendant L. H. That the said several petitions of appeal having come on to be heard before their lordships the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, their lordships, by an order made on the hearing of the said petitions, and dated the 2nd day of May, 1863, ordered that the said decree of his honour the Master of the Rolls, dated the 22nd day of July, 1862, should be discharged; and their lordships declared that, &c.; and it was ordered that, &c.

And your petitioner therefore appeals from the said orders of the 2nd day of May, 1863, and the 5th day of December, 1863, to your lordships: humbly (e) praying

That your lordships will be pleased to reverse the said order of the Lords Justices of the 2nd day of May, 1863, to the extent, and in the particulars, hereinbefore complained of; and to affirm the said decree of the Master of the Rolls of the 22nd day of July, 1862, so far as thereby the said plaintiff's said bill was dismissed; or that your lordships will please to alter or vary the said order of the 2nd day of May, 1863, in such manner as to your lordships shall seem just:

And that your lordships will be pleased to reverse the said order of the 5th day of December, 1863, so far as the same directs any costs to be paid by your petitioner:

C. D., ... Respondent.

To the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

The humble petition of the appellant.

Showeth:

That on the —— day of ——, 186—, the petitioner presented to your lordships a petition of appeal: complaining of a decree [Or, order] made by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain [Or, by their lordships, the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery—or as may be], dated the —— day of ——, 186—.

That your petitioner being very poor, as by the affidavit and certificate annexed appears, is by reason of such his poverty unable to prosecute his appeal, unless he is admitted by your lordships to do so in formâ pauperis.

That by an order of the High Court of Chancery made in the said cause your petitioner was, on the —— day of ——, 186—, admitted to prosecute his suit in the said Court in formâ pauperis.

Your petitioner therefore most humbly prays, that your lordships will be pleased to order that he may be admitted to prosecute his said appeal in formâ pauperis.

And your petitioner will ever pray.

FRAME AND END OF CERTAIN KINDS OF BILLS.

Section I.—Cross Bills, and Interrogatories for the Examination of Plaintiffs (a).

1601. Form of a cross bill (b).

The formal parts of a cross bill are the same as those of an original bill: as to which, see ante, No. 150. It is not, however, essential that the cross bill should refer to the original bill: it is sufficient if the subject matter be the same (d).

1602. Motion paper, to enlarge time to answer in cross suit, till after answer in original suit (e).

Short titles of the two suits, and other formal parts: see ante, No. 51.

(d) If the defendant has not appeared, the Record and Writ Clerk's certificate of the filing of the bill : see ante, No. 1668 : will be required : see Dan. Pr. 1545.

(e) In Dan. Pr. 1543, n. (n), it is stated that where the suit is commenced by administration summons, the application for the writ may be made by summons : the practice on this point is, however, unsettled ; and probably an ex parte motion would be deemed the proper mode of applying in this case, as well as in a bill suit.

Affidavit in support of application for the writ (f).

(Title of the cause, and reference to the record.)

I, A. B., of (residence and addition), the above named plaintiff, make oath and say, as follows :

1. State, concisely, the institution and object of the suit ; as thus : The bill in this cause was filed by me on the —— day of ——, 186—, against the above named defendant A. B., to obtain an account of all monies received by the said defendant for or on my account, or for my use, as my agent in the management of my estate called E., in the county of ——, as in the said bill mentioned, and of the application of such monies ; and for payment by the said defendant to me of what, on taking such account, should be found due from him to me.

2. State the existence of a debt due from the defendant ; as thus : The two accounts now produced and shown to me, and marked respectively F. and G., have been rendered to me by the said defendant, and purport to be his accounts as such agent as aforesaid. It appears by the said accounts that the said defendant is indebted to me in the sum of £——, on balance thereof. I have investigated the said accounts ; and I positively say that [Or, and to the best of my belief] the said defendant C. D. is now justly and truly indebted to me in the sum of £——, and upwards, on the balance of the said accounts [or as may be].

3. Show defendant's intention to go abroad ; and deponent's means of knowledge.

4. From the facts aforesaid, and for the reasons hereinbefore stated, I verily believe that the said defendant C. D., unless he be forthwith apprehended, will depart out of the jurisdiction of this honourable Court ; and that the debt due to me as aforesaid from the said defendant will be in danger of being lost to me by the said defendant quitting the said jurisdiction.

(h) See Dan. Pr. 1679. Inspection of documents deposited under an order will be refused, as well to the parties depositing the documents, as to a plaintiff or defendant: unless he is suing in person, or is introduced by his solicitor. Where liberty to inspect is given in the ordinary form, the party entitled to inspect may do so in the absence of the party depositing the documents; and therefore if it is desired that this practice should be modified, the order should be qualified accordingly. A defendant is not allowed to inspect documents deposited by a co-defendant: unless expressly authorised so to do by order: or the inspection is sanctioned by such co-defendant, or by the plaintiff. Copies of, or extracts from, documents inspected may be taken by the person making the inspection, without payment of any fee; and any such copies or extracts may be obtained by him from the Record and Writ Clerks' office, on payment of the usual fees for the same: see Dan. Pr. 1679; Braithwaite's Pr. 506, 509, 512. No fee is payable by a party inspecting his own documents; nor by other parties, where the inspection is merely made to select a document on bespeaking a copy of it: Braithwaite's Pr. 508. For the fees payable on inspection by other parties for other purposes, and for copies or extracts, see ante, No. 1485 (5).

CHAPTER XLV.

THE STATUTORY JURISDICTION OF THE COURT (b).

SECTION I.—TITLES OF PETITIONS, UNDER ACTS OF PARLIAMENT.

1913.

Directions of Lord Lyndhurst, as to the titles of petitions presented under Acts of Parliament (a).

In all cases where a petition is presented under the authority of an Act of Parliament to the Lord Chancellor, the petition must be entitled in the matter of that Act, and in a substantial matter

(a) 2nd Rep. Eng. & Ir. Com. App. 122 ; and see Dan. Pr. 1728. For other examples of titles in like case, see the title of the particular Act in the INDEX, post.

(b) See Dan. Pr. clxvii.—cxciii., 1727—1908. The Railway Companies' Act, 1867 (30 & 31 Vic. c. 127), provides, that the rolling stock and plant used or provided by a Company for the purposes of the traffic on their railway, or of their stations or workshops, shall not, after their railway or any part thereof is open for public traffic, be liable to be taken in execution at law or in equity at any time after the passing of the Act (20th August, 1867), and before the 1st Sept. 1868, where the judgment (which, by s. 3, includes a decree, order, or rule) on which execution issues is recovered in an action (which, by s. 3, includes a suit, or other proceeding) on a contract entered into after the passing of the Act, or in an action not on a contract commenced after the passing of the Act ; but the person who has recovered any such judgment may obtain the appointment of a receiver, and, if necessary, of a manager of the undertaking of the Company, on application by petition in a summary way to the Court of Chancery ; and all money received by such receiver or manager shall, after due provision for the working expenses of the railway and other proper outgoings in respect of the undertaking, be applied and distributed, under the direction of the Court, in payment of the debts of the Company, and otherwise, according to the rights and priorities of the persons for the time being interested therein ; and on payment of the amount due to every such judgment creditor the Court may, if it think fit, discharge such receiver, or such receiver and manager : s. 4. That if, in any case where property of a Company has been taken in execution, a question arises whether or not it is liable to be so taken, notwithstanding the Act, the same may be heard and determined on an application by either party by summons in a summary way to the Court out of which the execution issued : or, if the Court is one of the superior Courts of Law, then to a Judge of any one of those Courts ; and such determination shall be final and binding : s. 5. That where a Company are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors, also (c) : (1. 2) If it be a railway or other local Act, and under its powers a portion of the estate of any testator or intestate has been taken, the petition must be entitled in the matter of the estate of such testator or intestate ; Or (3) if property settled by any deed of settlement, then in the matter of such settlement ; Or (4) if land belonging to a rector, vicar, or corporate body, then it must be entitled, Ex parte the rector, vicar, or corporate body, as the case may be, and in the matter of the said Act ; (5) In the case of legacies paid into Court under the Act 36 Geo. III. c. 52, the directors may prepare a scheme of arrangement between the Company and their creditors (with or without provisions for settling and defining any rights of shareholders of the Company as among themselves, and for raising, if necessary, additional share and loan capital, or either of them) ; and may file the same in the Court of Chancery : with a declaration in writing, under the common seal of the Company, to the effect that the Company are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors, and with an affidavit of the truth of such declaration made by the chairman of the Board of Directors, and by the other directors, or the major part in number of them, to the best of their respective judgment and belief : s. 6. That after the filing of the scheme, the Court may, on the application of the Company, on summons or motion, in a summary way, restrain any action against the Company : on such terms as the Court thinks fit : s. 7. That notice of the filing of the scheme shall be published in the London Gazette : ss. 3, 8. That after such publication of notice, no execution, attachment, or other process against the property of the Company shall be available, without leave of the Court : to be obtained on summons or motion, in a summary way : s. 9. That if, at any time within three months after the filing of the scheme, or within such extended time as the Court from time to time thinks fit to allow, the directors of the Company consider the scheme to be assented to as by the Act required, they may apply to the Court, by petition in a summary way, for confirmation of the scheme ; and notice of any such application, when intended, shall be published in the London Gazette : ss. 3, 16. That after hearing the directors, and any creditors, shareholders, or other parties whom the Court thinks entitled to be heard on the application, the Court, if satisfied that the scheme has been, within three months after the filing of it, or such extended time (if any) as the Court has allowed, assented to as required by the Act, and that no sufficient objection to the scheme has been established, may confirm the scheme : s. 17. That the scheme, when confirmed, shall be enrolled in the Court ; and thenceforth the same shall be binding and effectual to all intents ; and the provisions thereof shall, against and in favour of the Company and all parties assenting thereto, or bound thereby, have the like effect as if they had been enacted by Parliament : s. 18. That notice of the confirmation and enrolment of the scheme shall be published in the London Gazette : ss. 3, 19. And that the Lord Chancellor, with the advice and assistance of the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, the Master of the Rolls, and the Vice-Chancellors, or any two of those Judges, may from time to time make General Orders for the regulation of the practice of the Court under the Act : s. 22. By ss. 10—15, provision is made as to the assents required to a scheme of arrangement.

In Chancery.

In the matter of Frances Ashton's Charity; and of the 52nd Geo. III., chapter 101, intituled "An Act to provide a summary remedy, in cases of abuses of trusts created for charitable purposes."

To the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls (i).

The humble petition of T. H., esquire, the Right Honourable Sir E. R., knight, and Sir R. H. I., baronet, M. P.

Showeth as follows:

1. Your petitioners are three of the trustees of a certain charity founded by the will of F. A., dated, &c., called "The Charity for Poor Clergymen and Poor Clergymen's Widows;" and are also trustees of a charity founded by the same will, called "The Almshouse Charity."

ties have been since administered; and both the said charities are comprised in one scheme: although the trustees thereof are different.

4. The real estates belonging to the said charities are situate near the towns of D. and L., in the county of B.; and from various causes, but more especially the very large increase of the population of the said towns, and the increased facility of communication with the metropolis by means of railways, certain parts of the charity estates are most favourably situate for building purposes; and, if sold in small portions, or let on building leases, it would tend greatly to the advantage of the charities, and the increase of the income thereof.

5. Your petitioners lately instructed their surveyors, Messrs. C. & Co., to survey the charity lands, with a view to ascertain whether some parts of the same might not be more advantageously disposed of than by being let for agricultural purposes; and Mr. H. C., one of the members of the said firm, made a report to your petitioners, dated, &c.; which was as follows: (Setting it out).

6. The said Messrs. C. & Co. have made another report to your petitioners; as follows: (Setting it out).

7. The said reports refer to a map, in the possession of your petitioners, of the whole of the charity estates and premises.

Your petitioners therefore humbly pray, that they may be at liberty to enter into contracts, subject to the approbation of the Court, for the sale, letting on building leases, and exchange, of such parts of the said charity estates as the Court may approve of: and that they may be at liberty, from time to time, to submit to the approbation of the Court such contracts as they may enter into; and, on the approval thereof by the Court, to execute such deeds as may be necessary for carrying the same into execution; and that the monies to be received by them may be invested, and held by them upon the same trusts as the lands in respect of which they were received were held; and that the dividends thereof may be applied accordingly.

Or that (Concluding as in No. 55, ante).

Showeth as follows :

[1—21. Statements showing that, under the settlement (dated 30th May, 1843) mentioned in the title, certain hereditaments were vested in the petitioners W. H. and S. W. U., in trust for the other petitioners : with power to sell, and grant or lease ; and that such settlement contained no provision forbidding the disposition of the premises therein comprised with an exception or reservation of any minerals.]

22. The lands and hereditaments now subject to the trusts of the said indenture of the 30th May, 1843, are suitable for sale in lots for building, and contain mines, minerals and coals : the reservation of which out of the grants of the said lands would not lessen the value of the said lands for building purposes, but would, by the separate sale of such mines, minerals and coals, be of great profit to the persons beneficially entitled under the said indenture.

Your petitioners therefore humbly pray, that the said W. H. and S. W. U., or the survivor of them, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said indenture of the 30th May, 1843, may be at liberty to exercise all or any of the trusts, powers and authorities of the said indenture, so as to dispose of the land and hereditaments now held under and subject to the trusts of the said indenture with an exception or reservation of the coals, mines and minerals in and under the same ; and the rights and powers of, or incidental to the working, getting, or carrying away of such coals, mines and minerals ; and so as to dispose of the coals, mines and minerals with such rights or powers separately from the residue of the land ; and in either case without prejudice to any future exercise of the said trusts, powers and authorities with respect to the excepted coals, mines or minerals, or (as the case may be) the undisposed of land.

Or that your lordship (Concluding as in No. 55, ante ; and foot note, No. 55a).

the plaintiff agreed to advance, as to £100 forthwith, and as to the remaining £50 when the defendant should apply for the same and it was agreed that the defendant should give his promissory note for the said sum and interest, as hereinafter mentioned; and should deposit the title deeds hereinafter mentioned, as a further security for such loan.

2. The plaintiff accordingly lent and advanced to the defendant the sum of £100 on the said 12th of May, 1851; and the defendant signed and delivered to the plaintiff his promissory note in the words and figures following: [Promissory note set out.]

3. At the same time the defendant deposited with the plaintiff the title deeds relating to a messuage, with the buildings, garden and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in the parish of E. in the county of S., commonly called or known by the name of Little Yard: which had been conveyed to the defendant in fee simple, to the usual uses to bar dower; but no memorandum of such deposit was then, or has since been, given to the plaintiff.

4. On or about the 4th of June, 1851, the defendant applied to the plaintiff to advance him the further sum of £50, in accordance with the agreement hereinbefore stated; and accordingly the plaintiff advanced the defendant the said sum of £50 on the said 4th of June, 1851; and the defendant signed and delivered to the plaintiff a promissory note in the words and figures following: [Promissory note set out.]

5. In or about the month of June, 1852, the defendant applied to the plaintiff to advance him the further sum of £60 for a week under special circumstances, in order to save him the expense of a journey to London; and the defendant agreed to repay the plaintiff the said sum of £60 in a week's time, and also 10*s.* for the accommodation. The plaintiff accordingly advanced and paid the said sum of £60 to the defendant: who, at the same time gave him an unstamped memorandum in the words and figures following: [Memorandum set out.]

6. The defendant made default in payment of the said sum of £60 and interest; and in the month of July or August, 1852, the plaintiff had an interview with the defendant, and then proposed that the defendant should execute to him a legal mortgage of the said freehold premises, of which the title deeds had been so deposited as aforesaid: together with certain leasehold property at C., which the defendant then stated he had recently agreed to purchase: to secure the said several loans and interest thereon at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum: to which proposal the defendant agreed; but such mortgage was never completed.

7. The whole of the three several sums of £100, £50, and £60: amounting together to the sum of £210: together with interest thereon, still remains due from the defendant to the plaintiff.

C. 461. The bill was taken pro confesso against the defendant. For ordinary foreclosure bill, see ante, No. 150. As to proceedings in foreclosure suits see Dan. Pr. 896, 899, 1154, 1155, 2061, 2062; and ante, Nos. 1254, et seq.

8. The defendant subsequently became involved in pecuniary difficulties; and on or about the 18th of October, 1852, he left his home, and has not since been seen or heard of: although repeated and diligent inquiries have been made for him.

Prayer.

The plaintiff prays as follows:—

1. That an account may be taken of what is due to the plaintiff on security of the said deposit of deeds; and that the defendant may be decreed to pay to the plaintiff what shall, on taking the said account, be found due to him: together with the costs of this suit: by a short day to be appointed for that purpose; and, in default of such payment, that the defendant may be for ever barred and foreclosed of all right and equity of redemption in the said hereditaments at E. aforesaid; and that the said hereditaments and the legal estate therein may be conveyed to the plaintiff: or otherwise that the same may be sold; and that the produce of such sale may be applied to the satisfaction of what shall be found due to the plaintiff; and for the above purposes that all necessary directions may be given.

Bill by executors of mortgagee, for specific performance of agreement to take a transfer : or for foreclosure or sale (i).

Title—and address of bill : see ante, No. 150.

Humbly complaining, &c., T. M., of, &c., W. S., of, &c., and J. C., of, &c., the above named plaintiffs, as follows :—

1. On the 7th day of May, 1852, G. C., late of R., deceased, lent and advanced to the defendant E. V. the sum of £3000 on the security hereinafter stated.

2. For securing the said sum of £3000 and interest the defendant E. V. signed and delivered to the said G. C. the following agreement : [Articles of agreement set out, verbatim : by which, after reciting the deposit of a lease, a policy of assurance, and gas shares, with G. C., E. V. declared that they were deposited as a security for £3000, and interest at 5 per cent ; and E. V. charged the leasehold property, the policy, and gas shares, and also a certain rent charge to which he was entitled in reversion, with the payment of the money and interest ; and E. V. agreed, when required, to execute a mortgage and transfer of the said premises, shares, policy of assurance and rent charge : with power of sale, and such other clauses as G. C. should require]. The defendant E. V. at the same time deposited with the said G. C. the several documents mentioned in the said agreement.

3. The said G. C. died in the month of April, 1853 : having first duly made and published his last will and testament in writing, and thereby appointed the plaintiffs executors : who, after his decease, proved the same in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

4. The said sum of £3000 is still due and owing on the said security, with interest thereon.

5. The defendant T. E., by letters signed by him, agreed with the plaintiffs, that if they would postpone giving notice of the said agreement to the tenants of the said property, and to the said gas and insurance offices, he would take a transfer of the said security. The plaintiffs accordingly, relying on such agreement, forbore to give such notice ; but the defendant T. E. now refuses to perform his said agreement. The defendant T. E. acted in the said matter in concert with the defendant E. V., for the purpose of delaying the plaintiffs' proceedings against him, and enabling him to dispose of portions of his property; and the defendant E. V. has accordingly realized portions of his property, and placed the same out of the hands of his creditors.

Prayer.

The plaintiffs pray as follows:—

1. That an account may be taken of the amount due and owing on the said security.

2. That the said agreement with the defendant T. E. may be specifically performed; and that the defendant T. E. may be decreed to pay to the plaintiffs the amount due on their said security, with the costs of this suit: the plaintiffs being willing, and hereby offering, on such payment, to transfer to him the said security; or otherwise that the amount so due: together with the costs of this suit: may be paid to the plaintiffs by the defendant E. V., by a short day to be appointed for that purpose; and that in default of such payment, the defendant E. V., and all persons claiming under him, may be debarred and foreclosed of and from all right and equity of redemption in the said mortgaged premises; and may be decreed to convey and transfer the same to the plaintiffs; or otherwise that the said mortgaged premises may be sold, and the proceeds thereof applied in payment of the amount due on the said security, and the plaintiffs' costs of this suit.

3. That some proper person may be appointed, under the order and direction of this honourable Court, to collect, receive, and get in the rents and profits of the said leasehold premises, and the dividends of the said shares, and the said rent charge: when the same shall become payable.

Title—and address of bill: see ante, No. 150.

Humbly complaining, &c., J. T., A. T., W. T., and H. T., all of, &c., the above named plaintiffs, as follows:

1. Before and at the time of the making of the letters patent next hereinafter mentioned the plaintiffs had discovered and were the sole, true, and first inventors of the improvements in machinery for the manufacture of looped or knitted fabrics in such letters patent mentioned; and no other person before or at such time made, used, exercised, or vended the said improvements or invention.

2. On the 10th of October, 1855, her present Majesty, by letters patent of that day, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, did for herself, her heirs and successors, give and grant unto the plaintiffs her special licence, that they, their executors, administrators and assigns, or such others as the plaintiffs, their executors, administrators and assigns should at any time agree with, and no others, from time to time, and at all times thereafter, during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent, should and lawfully might make, use, exercise, and vend, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and Isle of Man, an invention for "Improvements in Machinery for the Manufacture of Looped or Knitted Fabrics": upon the condition that the plaintiffs, their executors, or administrators, by an instrument in writing under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of one of them, should particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the said invention, and in what manner the same was to be performed, and cause the same to be filed in the Great Seal Patent Office, within six calendar months next and immediately after the date of the said letters patent: as by the said letters patent, when produced, will appear.

3. In pursuance of the said condition the plaintiffs, by an instrument in writing under their hands and seals, dated the 7th of April, 1856, and enrolled in the Great Seal Patent Office on the 9th of the same month of April, 1856, particularly described the nature of their said invention, and in what manner the same was to be performed: as by the said instrument in writing, when produced, will appear.

4. Concise statement, from the specification, of the nature of the invention.

5. The said letters patent have never been impeached; and the same have, from the day of the date thereof, remained and now are, in full force, and of valid and effectual authority; and the said improvement and invention was and is novel, useful, and valuable; and from the day of the date of the said letters patent the plaintiffs have applied the said invention with great success and have manufactured large quantities of looped fabrics, by means of machinery constructed according to the said invention and have derived great profit from the manufacture of such looped fabrics.

6. The plaintiffs have never permitted any machines to be constructed according to the said invention for any person, except for themselves; and they have never granted any licence to use the said invention to any person whomsoever.

7. In the month of ——, the plaintiffs discovered, for the first time, as the fact is, that the defendant has caused to be constructed for himself, and erected at L., several machines constructed according to the plaintiffs' said invention, or upon the principle of, or only colourably differing from, the plaintiffs' said invention, and that by means of such machines the defendant is manufacturing large quantities of looped fabrics.

8. The defendant has made and is now making such goods as last aforesaid, and is selling the same: to the great prejudice and damage of the plaintiffs; and he has derived, and is now deriving, large gains and profits therefrom.

9. The defendant has sold the looped fabrics so manufactured by him by means of such machines as aforesaid, at a great reduction on the price at which they had been sold previously by the plaintiffs; and the plaintiffs have been thereby compelled to reduce their charges for manufacturing such looped fabrics: to the great loss and damage of the plaintiffs.

10. The plaintiffs have frequently applied to the defendant, and requested him to discontinue the use of their said invention, and the infringement of their said patent, and to come to an account with the plaintiffs for the profits made by the defendant by such use and infringement; but the defendant has refused to comply with such requests.

Prayer.

The plaintiff prays as follows:—

1. That an account may be taken of the profits made by the defendant from the sale of looped fabrics manufactured by him by means of machines constructed according to the plaintiffs' said invention, or constructed upon the principle of, or only colourably differing from, the said invention; and that the defendant may be decreed to pay to the plaintiffs what, upon taking such accounts, shall be found due from him.

2. That the amount of the damages sustained by the plaintiffs, by reason of the defendant infringing their said letters patent, beyond the amount which, upon taking the account aforesaid, shall appear to be the profits made by the defendant as aforesaid, may be ascertained by and under the direction of this honourable Court; and that the defendant may be decreed to pay such amount to the plaintiff.

3. That the defendant, his servants, agents, and workmen may be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honourable Court, from making, using, or selling machines for the manufacture of looped fabrics constructed according to, or upon the principle of, or upon any principle only colourably differing from, the plaintiffs' said invention; and from selling looped fabrics manufactured by means of any such machine: except such fabrics shall have been manufactured by the plaintiffs, or by some person duly licensed by them.

4. That the defendant may pay the costs of this suit.

5. General relief: see ante, No. 150.

Bill for appointment of a receiver of real and personal estate, at the instance of alleged heir at law and next of kin: pending litigation as to his title (l).

Title—and address of bill: see ante, No. 150.

Humbly complaining, &c., S. W., of, &c., the above named plaintiff, as follows:

1. M. E., late of, &c., widow, was for many years prior and down to, and at the time of her death hereinafter mentioned, seised or otherwise well entitled in fee simple of or to real estate of large value: consisting of houses and hereditaments situate in the counties of M. and E., and elsewhere.

2. The said M. E. was also, at the time of her death, possessed of or entitled to a large leasehold estate: consisting of houses and hereditaments situate in the counties of M. and E., and elsewhere; and also of or to a large personal estate: consisting of moneys, securities for money, and other particulars of very large value.

3. The said M. E. died intestate on or about, &c., a widow, and without issue.

4. At the time of the death of the said M. E. the plaintiff was and he is, her heir at law: being the eldest son of S. W. the younger, late of, &c., deceased, who was the only brother of the said M. E., and who died in her lifetime. The said S. W. the younger, and the said M. E., were the son and daughter of S. W. the elder, of, &c., and M. his wife, who died many years ago.

5. The plaintiff was also at the time of the death of the said M. E., and he is now, one of her next of kin according to the statutes for the distribution of the estates and effects of intestates. The only other next of kin of the said M. E. were and are E., now the wife of J. G., A. W., and J. W.: the only other children of the said S. W. the younger who were living at the time of the decease of the said M. E.

6. Shortly after the death of the said M. E., untrue information was given to the solicitor of Her Majesty's Treasury that the plaintiff and his said brother and sisters were illegitimate, and that the said M. E. had died without leaving any lawful heir or next of kin; and thereupon, and on the —— day of ——, 186—, a caveat was entered in Her Majesty's Principal Court of Probate by Her Majesty's Proctor, on behalf of Her Majesty, against the grant of letters of administration of the effects of the said intestate to any except such person as should be nominated by or on behalf of Her Majesty.

7. The plaintiff, as such heir at law of the said M. E., has commenced divers actions of ejectment against the tenants in possession of divers parts of the said M. E.'s real estate, to recover possession thereof; and Her Majesty's Attorney-General has undertaken to defend such actions on behalf of the tenants in possession; but some considerable time must elapse before such actions can be tried, or the title of the plaintiff as such heir at law can be determined.

8. In the meantime the rents of the said M. E.'s real estate: which consists in great part of divers small houses and tenements, let to divers persons as weekly tenants: have run into arrear; and the tenants in possession refuse to pay any rent to the plaintiff; and very large sums are due in respect of the same rents: which are in danger of being lost, and in fact very large sums have already been lost in respect thereof.

9. The plaintiff has applied to Her Majesty's Court of Probate for the grant of letters of administration of the estate and effects of the said M. E. to him, as the lawful nephew, and one of the nearest of kin of the said M. E.; but by reason of the grant of such letters being opposed by Her Majesty's Attorney-General, under the circumstances aforesaid, the right to such letters of administration is now under litigation; and some time must necessarily elapse before the right of the plaintiff thereto can be determined.

10. Under the circumstances aforesaid there is no personal representative of the said M. E.

11. For the reasons aforesaid, the rents of the leasehold estate of the said M. E.: which consists of divers small houses let out to weekly tenants: are likewise in arrear, and in danger of being lost; and a large portion thereof has already been lost.

12. Moreover, the houses and buildings on the said estates are falling into bad repair, and they require considerable outlay to keep them in proper condition; and the covenants to repair and insure contained in several of the leases under which the said M. E.'s leasehold estate is held have been broken; and the said leases are liable to forfeiture; and, indeed, the landlords of some parts of the said leasehold estate have already entered upon the same for breaches of covenant: whereby the same have become lost to the said intestate's estate.

13. The moneys and other personal estate of the said M. E. are likewise in danger of being lost for want of some person to collect and get in the same.

14. The plaintiff submits that some proper person or persons ought to be appointed to receive the rents and profits of the said M. E.'s freehold and leasehold estates, and to collect and get in her personal estate, as hereinafter prayed.

15. At the time of the death of the said M. E., there were in her house divers deeds, books, and documents belonging to her, and relating to her real and personal estate, and such deeds, books, and documents were taken possession of on the part of Her Majesty; and the same are now under the control of Her Majesty's Attorney-General; and the plaintiff submits that the same ought to be produced and handed over to such person or persons as may be appointed to be such receiver or receivers as aforesaid, for the purpose of facilitating the receipt of the rents and profits of the said real and leasehold estate, and the receipt and getting in of the said intestate's other personal estate.

Prayer.

The plaintiff prays as follows :

1. That some proper person may be appointed to receive the rents and profits of the real estate of the said M. E., and to let and manage the same : until such time as the plaintiff's title shall be determined in the said action at law.

2. That some proper person may also be appointed to receive the rents and profits of the leasehold estates of the said M. E., and to let and manage the same, and to receive, collect and get in her personal estate: pending the aforesaid litigation in Her Majesty's Court of Probate.

3. That all deeds, books, and documents now under the control of Her Majesty's Attorney-General, belonging or relating to the real and personal estate of the said M. E., may be delivered over to the person or persons so to be appointed, or that the same may be deposited in this Court : for the purpose of enabling such person or persons to refer to and use the same, as may be necessary.

4. That for the purposes aforesaid all usual and necessary directions may be given, and inquiries directed.

B., and M. P. are respectively the legal personal representatives of T. D., T. R. S., J. B., J. B., R. E., W. B., and R. P., who formed seven of the crew of the said Thomas Barker, and who were respectively drowned. J. D., another of the crew of the said Thomas Barker, was drowned, but he has not any legal personal representative. The defendants W. C. W. and J. M. D., the only other members of the crew, survived the said collision, and are now living. All the crew of the said Thomas Barker had on board the said vessel, at the time of the said collision, clothes, sea chests, bedding, and other chattels.

5. No passengers or cargo were on board the Edith Mary at the time of the collision aforesaid.

6. The defendant T. B. has threatened to take proceedings against the plaintiffs, as owners of the Edith Mary, to recover from them a very large sum for the loss incurred by him through the said collision. The defendants E. D., E. T. S., J. B., M. B., A. C. E., M. B., and M. P. have severally commenced actions in Her Majesty's Court of Q. B., at Westminster, against the plaintiffs, to recover from them very large sums of money by reason of the loss of the lives of the seamen aforesaid, and the loss of their clothes and property; and such proceedings are still pending. The defendants W. C. W. and J. M. D. also threaten proceedings against the plaintiffs for the loss of their clothes and baggage; and the defendants, the C. G. C., L., claim a large sum of money from the plaintiffs for the loss of the cargo of the Thomas Barker, by the collision aforesaid.

7. The total amount of the several claims exceed by a large amount the sum of £1984: which is the value of the Edith Mary, reckoned at £8 per registered ton.

8. The plaintiffs admit that they are answerable in damages, in respect of the matters aforesaid, in manner mentioned in Part 9 of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, to the extent of £8 per registered ton of the Edith Mary: which the plaintiffs submit is, according to the said Act, the limit of their liability where there has been no loss of life of, or personal injury to, any passenger; and they are desirous of having such limit of liability declared, and the amount thereof distributed, under the direction of this honourable Court.

Prayer.

The plaintiffs pray as follows:—

1. That the amount of the plaintiffs' liability in respect of the matters aforesaid, according to the said Act, may be declared and distributed between the defendants, and all other persons who shall establish claims against the plaintiffs in respect of the matters aforesaid, by and under the direction of this honourable Court.

2. That in the meantime the defendants, and each of them, may be restrained, by the order and injunction of this honourable Court, from prosecuting the said actions so already commenced as aforesaid, and each of them,

Plea in bar, that defendants are not legal personal representatives (f).

We, T. L. C. and J. F., by protestation (&c.: as in ante, No. 493, to alleged), to all the relief, and to all the discovery, sought for and prayed against us by the said bill, do plead in bar to the said bill; and for a plea say: that immediately after the death of Sir C. R. T., the testator in the said bill named, the solicitor of the plaintiff A. C. T. entered a caveat in the Court of Probate to prevent any person from proving the will and codicil of the said testator in the said bill mentioned; and that he thereby prevented probate being obtained of such will and codicil, or the constitution of a legal personal representative of the said testator; and that in consequence of the aforesaid act of the plaintiff's solicitor, and in fact, we have not, nor has either of us, proved the said will or codicil, or been constituted in any manner the legal personal representatives, or the legal personal representative, of the said testator; and we are not, nor is either of us, nor have nor has we or either of us, ever been executors or executor, or legal personal representatives, or legal personal representative, of the said testator. Plea of another suit pending in the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster (h).

We J. T. and E. G., by protestation (&c.: as in ante, No. 493, to alleged), for plea to the whole of the said bill say, that on the —— day of ——, the plaintiff B. L., by J. L. her next friend, filed her claim in the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster against these defendants, &c.; and thereby the plaintiff B. L. claimed as follows; that is to say: (Stating what). And we further aver, that all the defendants to the said claim duly appeared thereto; and that by an order dated the 7th August, 1861, in the said former suit, on the application of the defendants thereto, other than the defendant J. L., it was ordered that (Stating the substance of the order: for which see ante, No. 503a). And we further aver, that no proceeding has been had in the said former suit; but that the same is still pending; and that the said former suit is in respect of the same matters, and for the same purposes, as the present suit; and that the said county of Lancaster has been from time whereof the memory of man is not to the contrary, and now is, a County Palatine: having co-equal jurisdiction with this Court touching or concerning property within the jurisdiction of the said Court; and that all the property in question in the present suit, and all the parties to the present suit, are within the jurisdiction of the said Court; and that the plaintiff B. L. may obtain the same relief in the said former suit as in the present suit, touching the matters in the said bill mentioned. Therefore, we plead the said former suit in the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, and the several proceedings therein, in bar to the plaintiff's said bill in this Court; and humbly demand the judgment of this Court whether we shall be compelled (&c.: Concluding as in No. 2097, ante).

1. Formal parts and Precedent.

See ante, Nos. 520—532.

2099. Formal parts.

2100. Precedent of an answer (k).

In answer to the said bill I, T. E. (k), say as follows :—

1. I have for several years been well acquainted with the defendant E. V. : who was and is a solicitor practising at R., in the bill mentioned ; and who has for some time been, and still is secretary to the R. Union Gas Company, and owner of the leasehold messuages and premises in the said bill respectively mentioned or referred to ; and on or before the 30th day of June, 1854, I was informed that legal proceedings against the defendant E. V. were contemplated by or on behalf of the family or representatives of Mr. G. C., in the bill named, for the purpose of compelling payment by the defendant E. V. of a sum of money due, or alleged to be due, from him to the estate of the said G. C., and charged by him upon certain shares in the said gas company, and upon the said leasehold messuages and premises, and on the policy of assurance, and rent charge, in the said bill respectively mentioned : and that with a view to such proceedings it was intended to give notices of such charge to the said gas company, and to the several tenants of the said leasehold messuages and premises, and to the P. Insurance Company, in the bill mentioned ; and being of opinion that such notices, and the notoriety which would be thereby occasioned of his affairs being embarrassed, and other probable consequences from the same, would be highly prejudicial to the defendant E. V., and his family, I was very desirous of protecting him from such notices being given, and also to save him from proceedings or pressure to compel payment ; and consequently I wrote and sent, on the said 30th day of June,

Pr. lxiii.—lxx., 659—727, 1965—1971 ; and ante, Nos. 520, et seq. For the model form of an answer, see ante, No. 520 ; and for other forms, see ante, Nos. 626—628 ; Drewry, Eq. Drafting, 346. For form of affidavit as to documents from which the answer to the several interrogatories can be readily framed, see ante, No. 1524.

(k) This is the answer of the defendant T. E. to the bill in Morris v. Vines, ante, No. 2071 ; and, upon its coming in, the plaintiffs were advised, that it displaced the case against that defendant, and that there was no object in continuing him a party to the suit.

to the defendant E. V., a letter informing him of my willingness to redeem the security given by him within a month, if, by so doing, I could protect him from such notices being given: which letter was in the words and figures following; that is to say (Setting out letter). The said letter did not satisfy the plaintiffs being the parties therein referred to; and the offer which I thereby expressed myself willing to make, upon condition of such protection as aforesaid being granted, was declined by the said parties, and such protection was not granted.

2. On or about the 4th day of July, 1854, Messrs. S., solicitors, as I believe, for the plaintiffs, and to whom, as I believe, my letter above stated had been forwarded by the defendant E. V., wrote and sent to me a letter in the words and figures following: (Setting out letter from solicitors, to E. T.: inquiring whether he will undertake to pay debt, and take transfer of securities, within a month).

3. The last hereinbefore stated letter having been sent to the E. hotel: which place I had previously left: was not received by me till several days afterwards.

4. On or about the 7th day of July aforesaid, the said Messrs. S. wrote and sent to me a letter in the words and figures following: (Setting out letter stating that no answer had been received by Messrs. S. to their last letter, and requesting an answer).

5. The above stated letters of the 4th and 7th days of July were forwarded to me at my then and present residence, S. house H.; and upon the receipt thereof, I wrote and sent to the said Messrs. S. a letter in the words, or to the purport and effect, following: (Setting out letter agreeing to take a transfer of the equitable mortgage in a month).

6 In answer to the said last mentioned letter the said Messrs. S. wrote and sent to me a letter in the words and figures following: (Setting out letter enclosing memorandum of agreement for transfer: to be signed by T. E.).

7. The writing in the said last stated letter described as a memorandum of agreement and enclosed therein was in the words and figures following: (Setting out agreement to take a transfer within two months).

8. After receiving the last stated letter and writing, I consulted my solicitor Mr. J. V., of &c., respecting the same; and he was of opinion that it would be prudent on my part that a clause should be inserted in such writing, before the same should be signed by me, to bind the plaintiffs to give, during the said two months, any such notice or notices as I should require; and he wished to consult counsel respecting the same, and which accordingly I requested him to do; but in order to avoid delay, I signed the said writing without such additional clause, and placed the same in the hands of the said J. V.: to be delivered in case counsel should be of opinion that no such clause was necessary; and in case the proposed agreement was to be carried into effect without any variation; and the said J. V. thereupon, and on Saturday the 15th day of July, called upon the said Messrs. S., and saw Mr. F. of the said firm, and explained to him the nature of the additional clause desired; and Mr. F. thereupon said, that unless such an agreement, with or without the additional clause, was delivered at or before one o'clock on the following Monday, they should consider the treaty ended, and that the notices would be forthwith served. The said Mr. J. V. endeavoured without delay to consult counsel on the subject; and in consequence, as I believe, of the temporary absence from L. of the counsel whose opinion he wished to obtain, he was unable to get such opinion within the time stipulated by the said Mr. F.; and consequently no such agreement as required was delivered at or before one o'clock on the said Monday, the 17th day of July; and shortly after the said hour, the said Mr. J. V. was informed, by a friend of the plaintiffs, that the notices had been actually sent, and in fact a person was sent, by the said Messrs. S. to R., on behalf of the plaintiffs, to deliver, and he did deliver, on the evening of the same Monday, the 17th day of July aforesaid, such notices to the said R. Union Gas Company, and to the said tenants of the said leasehold messuages and premises; and a like notice was on the following day served on the said insurance office.

9. The said negociation and treaty between the plaintiffs and myself was thereby broken off; and no agreement was made respecting the matters aforesaid, or the matters in the said bill mentioned, or any of them; and the document so signed by me was not, nor was any memorandum of agreement by me, delivered to the plaintiffs, or their said solicitors, or other person on their behalf, at any time; and the said document is now in the possession of my solicitor on my behalf.

10. No letter or writing or communication, save as aforesaid, passed between me and the plaintiffs, or any person on their behalf; and for my greater certainty as to the said several letters and writings, I crave leave to refer to the same when produced; and I deny it to be true that I did, by letters or letter, or other writing signed by me, or otherwise, agree with the plaintiffs, or any or either of them, that if they would postpone giving notice of the agreement in the bill mentioned to the tenants of the property, and to the gas and insurance offices, therein respectively mentioned, or any or either of them, I would take a transfer of the security in the said bill mentioned, or of any other security, or that I at any time, or in any manner, entered into any such agreement as in the said bill mentioned. And I deny it to be true that the plaintiffs relied on any such agreement as in the said bill stated; or that they forbore to give such notice as in the said bill stated; and on the contrary I say, that the plaintiffs did, on the said 17th day of July, 1854, give such notices, and on the 20th of the same month of July they filed their bill in this suit, and that on the 24th day of the same month they applied for and obtained an order of this honourable Court for the appointment of a receiver to collect, get in, and receive the rents and profits of the leasehold premises, and the dividends o the shares and the rent charges, respectively mentioned in th plaintiffs' bill; and the tenants of the said leasehold estates were thereby ordered to attorn, and pay their rents in arrear, an growing rents, to such receiver: who was to be at liberty t manage, set, and let the said estates with the approbation of th Judge to whose Court the cause is attached, as there should b occasion. And I say that the said letters and writings were an are no more than parts of a negociation or treaty, into which entered, as the plaintiffs knew, only with the desire, and for th purposes hereinbefore in that behalf mentioned, and not othe wise: which desire and purposes were entirely frustrated by th said plaintiffs breaking off and abandoning the said treaty i manner aforesaid, and by their serving such notices, and b instituting this suit, and taking the said proceedings therei And I deny it to be true that I acted in the matter in the sai bill mentioned, or in any other matter, in concert with th defendant E. V., for the purpose of delaying the plaintiffs' pro ceedings against him, and enabling him to dispose of portions c his property; and I deny it to be true that the defendant E. V accordingly realised portions of his property, and placed the sam out of the reach of his creditors.

11. I submit that the plaintiffs have not, on their bill, show any case in equity, or case entitling them to proceed against m in this honourable Court; and I pray all such benefit as if I ha demurred to the said bill (l).

Accounts: reference to schedules thereof to answer (n).

I have in the first schedule hereto, and which I pray may be taken as part of this my answer, set forth, to the best of my knowledge, information, remembrance and belief, a full true and particular list and account of all the personal estate and effects of or to which the said testator was possessed or entitled at the time of his death. And I say, that I have possessed myself of all such personal estate and effects. And as to such articles of personal effects as were as aforesaid specifically bequeathed by the said will, I say, that I have delivered the same to the several legatees to whom the same respectively were bequeathed. And I say, that my dealings with the rest of the said personal estate and effects appear by the second and third schedules to this my answer. And in the second schedule hereto, and which I pray may be taken as part of this my answer, I have, to the best of my knowledge, information, remembrance and belief, set forth a full, true and particular account of all monies received or paid by me on account or in respect of the personal estate of the said testator, and by an inspection of which it will be seen what from time to time were the balances in my hands. And in the third schedule hereto, and which I pray may be taken as part of this my answer, I have, to the best of my knowledge, information, remembrance and belief, set forth a full, true and particular account of the government and other stocks forming part of the said testator's estate, and of my dealings with the same. And save as aforesaid, I am unable, as to my belief or otherwise, to set forth any account of the personal estate of the said testator, at the time of his decease, or of the particulars whereof the same consisted, or of such parts thereof as have come to my hands, or the hands of any other person by my order, or for my use, or of my application thereof respectively, or of such parts of the said personal estate as are outstanding, or of the balances which have from time to time been in my hands or power in respect of the said personal estate.

Particulars of property: reference to schedule thereof to answer (n).

We have in the schedule hereto set forth, according to the best of our knowledge, information and belief, a short but complete statement of the several particulars of the said testator's freehold and personal estate, and what parts or portions thereof have been sold, called in, or converted into money, and the several particulars of which the said testator's estate now consists, and upon what securities, and in whose names or name, and in what manner the same and every part thereof is invested.

(n) See Dan. Pr. 669, 672. As to when schedules will be deemed impertinent, see ib.

Accounts refused, as being useless before decree (o).

And we say and submit, that it would only occasion great and useless expense were we in this our answer to set forth any further or fuller account of the rents and profits aforesaid; and that the same ought to be taken, if at all, by and under the directions and decree of this honourable Court.

2106.
Admission.

We admit that, &c.

2107.
Admission for purposes of the suit.

We have no personal knowledge of the fact, but, for the purposes of this suit, we admit that, &c.

2108.
Claims made by defendant.

I claim to be interested in the matters of this suit by virtue of, &c.

The short particulars of the mortgage now vested in us, and of our title thereto, are as follows, &c.

We claim to be equitable mortgagees of the hereditaments mentioned in the said bill, together with other hereditaments under a memorandum in the words and figures following; that is to say: &c.

We claim a lien on the shares of, &c., for so much of the said debts as arises from the unpaid purchase money of the same shares respectively, and the interest thereof.

Craving leave, for greater certainty (p)

We admit that, &c.—Or, We believe that, &c.—but for greater certainty, we crave leave to refer to the said, &c., when produced.

Craving leave to refer to co-defendant's answer (q).

I know little or nothing respecting the deeds, dealings and transactions stated in the said amended bill; but I have seen a copy of the answer proposed to be forthwith put in to the said amended bill by the defendants J. L. and G. W. F.; and I have no doubt but that the statements contained in such answer are correct. However, for my greater certainty, as to the contents of deeds and other written documents, I crave leave to refer to such deeds or documents. Under the circumstances hereinbefore stated, and to avoid expense and prolixity, I abstain from answering, categorically, the interrogatories filed for the examination of the last named defendants and myself in answer to the amended bill; but if the plaintiffs so desire, I am ready and willing to put in a full answer to the said amended bill.

(o) See Dan. Pr. 667, 792.
(p) Ibid. 671, 778, 1673.
(q) Ibid. 782.

2111.
Offer to deliver documents, instead of scheduling.

I have in my possession certain papers and old rate books, which I am willing to hand over to the plaintiffs if they desire it. No application for any of the said papers or books was ever made to me prior to the filing of the bill in this cause. I have, under these circumstances, set out no list or schedule of such papers and books; and I submit that to do so would have been a useless expense.

Reference to discovery of documents already made by affidavit (r).

I have, under an order made in this cause, and dated the —— day of ——, 186—, made an affidavit, to which I crave leave to refer, and which is, I submit, a sufficient answer to the 34th interrogatory to the said bill: being the interrogatory as to documents.

Inability to discover contents of documents (s).

The said settlement, and other deeds and documents hereinbefore mentioned, have been for some time and are now in the custody, possession or power of the plaintiff W. S.; but he refuses to produce the same, or to give me any information with respect to their contents; and I am, therefore, unable to set forth the same, or any of them, with greater certainty or particularity than hereinbefore appears.

Objection to discovery, on ground of privilege (t).

We have also in our possession or power the several other documents mentioned and described in the second part of the said schedule; but we say that the same relate exclusively to our title to the said freehold hereditaments, and do not in any way show, or tend to show, any right or title in the plaintiffs, or either of them, therein or thereto, or in or to any part thereof. And we submit that the same are privileged documents; and we object to produce the same, or any of them. We deny that hereby, or by any of them, if produced, the truth of the matters in the said bill mentioned, or any of them, would appear.

Objection by mortgagee to produce documents (u).

I say that I have in my possession or power divers deeds, documents, papers and writings, relating to the hereditaments and premises in the said bill mentioned, and to the matters in the said bill mentioned, and that thereby, if produced, the truth of the matters in the said bill mentioned as the same are herein, and not as the same are in the said bill set forth, will appear. And I have in the schedule hereto set forth a full and true list an sufficient description of all the said several particulars ; but I sa that I am a mortgagee ; and that a large sum is still due and owin to me, on my mortgage securities ; and that the said several deed documents, and papers and writings form and support my titl and are intended to be used by me in evidence thereof accordingly and do not contain anything impeaching my case, or tending t support the plaintiffs' title, otherwise than as such title is herei admitted. And I insist that, until I have been paid the princip money and interest due on my said mortgage, in the said bi and hereinbefore mentioned, and the costs of this suit, the plain tiffs are not entitled to inspect the said deeds, documents, pape and writings, or any of them, or to have the same or any of the produced for any purpose. And save as aforesaid, I deny it to l true that I have now, or had lately (Traverse the interrogatories)

Information and belief (v).

I have been informed and believe, that, &c.

I believe that, &c.

We have no reason to doubt, and therefore we believe that, &

We believe that the statements contained in the paragrap numbered respectively from 1 to 8, both inclusive, of the plaintif bill of complaint are true, except in the particulars or respe hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say : &c.

I, this defendant W. R., say, and we, these other defendant believe it to be true, that, &c.

We have no personal knowledge of the matters inquired aft by the —— interrogatory filed in this cause ; but we have reason to doubt, and therefore we believe, that, &c.

2117.
Ignorance (v).

I [Or, We] do not know, and cannot set forth as to my [Or, to either of our] belief or otherwise, whether or not it is alleg or is the fact that, &c.

2118.
Qualified denial (x).

Save as herein appears, it is not the fact, &c.

Save as herein appears [Or, Save as by the said schedu appears], I do not know, &c.

2119.
Reference to a schedule.

I have in the —— schedule hereto, and which I pray may taken as part of this my answer, set forth, to the best of m knowledge, information, and belief, a description of, &c.

(v) See Dan. Pr. 668, 780, 781.
(x) Ibid. 670, 671 ; Ord. XV. 2.

2120. Release: craving same benefit, as if pleaded (y).

We submit, and humbly insist, that the said release so executed as aforesaid, and the payment of the said sum of £——, and the receipt given for the same, is a full discharge; and we claim the same benefit as if we had pleaded the same release. Nevertheless, we are willing and hereby submit to account as this honourable Court may think fit.

2121. Statute of limitations of 21 James I. c. 16, claimed, as if pleaded (z).

I insist on the statute made in the 21st year of His late Majesty James the 1st, for the limitation of actions, in as full and ample a manner as if I had pleaded the same in bar of the plaintiffs' said bill, or to the relief sought thereby.

2122. The like, of 3 & 4 Will. IV. c. 27 (z).

We severally claim the benefit of the provisions made in and by the statute passed in the session holden in the 3rd and 4th years of the reign of King William the 4th, "for the limitation of actions and suits relating to real property, and for simplifying the remedies for trying the rights thereto," and of all other statutes of limitation, in bar to the relief sought by the plaintiff in this suit: in the like manner as if we had pleaded the same.

2123. Settled accounts: claim of (a).

The account so stated and settled was in fact stated and settled by the said A. B. and myself, as it purports to be, on the day of the date thereof; and I claim the benefit thereof as a settled account.

2124. Submission of fact.

We submit to the judgment of this honourable Court whether it is or not the fact, &c.

2125. Submission by trustee to act.

We submit in all things to act as this honourable Court shall direct; and we claim to have our costs, charges, and expenses, properly incurred (b), paid out of the estate of the said testator.

2126. Traverse (c).

The said J. S. died on the —— day of ——, and not on the —— day of ——, as in the 2nd paragraph of the said bill erroneously stated; but save as aforesaid, we do not know, and are unable, as to our belief or otherwise, to set forth whether or not the statements, or some or one or which of the statements, contained in the paragraphs numbered respectively from 1 to 8, both inclusive, of the plaintiff's bill of complaint are or is true, or which of them are or is or in what respect untrue, or how otherwise.

(y) See Dan. Pr. 662, 664. For form of plea of a release, see ante, No. 2097.

(z) See Dan. Pr. 662, 664.

(a) Ibid. 614—617.

(b) Ibid. 1148, 1322.

(c) Ibid. 670, 671; Ord. XV. 2.

2127.
Trustee: desire to be discharged.

I have never in any manner intermeddled with the said tru estate, nor received any of the rents and profits thereof; and am very desirous to be discharged from the trusts in the bill me tioned, and I am ready and willing to convey and release the tru premises to such persons, or to do such other acts, as this honoural Court shall direct for that purpose, upon being indemnified in doing, and having my costs and expenses.

Vexatious suit: settled accounts: claim of benefit of defence as if raised by plea or demurrer (c).

We submit to the judgment of this honourable Court, a humbly insist, that this suit is altogether unnecessary and vex tious; and that even if the plaintiff had been entitled to any su relief as is prayed by the said bill, the same might have be obtained by proceedings at law; but we say that a large sum money has been for a long time, and now is, justly due and owi to us from the plaintiff; and that during the whole of the tra actions in the said bill mentioned we were in advance wi creditors of the plaintiff; and that the plaintiff has repeated and partly in the letters hereinbefore set forth, acknowledged t accuracy of the accounts rendered by us to him; and has treat the same as being, as in fact they were, settled accounts; and claim the same benefit from this our answer as if we had plead the several matters herein stated or any of them, or as if we h demurred to the said bill.

Want of interest in plaintiff: craving same benefit as if defence by demurrer (c).

I am advised, and humbly submit, that the plaintiff has n any interest in the estate of the said testator, or in the matters question in this suit, nor any such estate or interest in the sa testator's estate, or the matters aforesaid, as to entitle the plaint to sustain this suit; and I crave the same benefit from th defence as if I had demurred to the said bill.

2130.
Claim of benefit of same defence to amended as to original bill (d).

We submit that the plaintiff has not, by his said amended b entitled himself to any equitable relief as against us; and accordingly claim the benefit of the same objections to the sa amended bill as are claimed by our said answer to the said origin bill.
